

Do You Know These Outstanding Nebraskans?

ALAN GLESS—U of N

I recommend that everyone take this course. I have found Reading Dynamics training invaluable in keeping up with the tremendous amount of reading that is required as a college student. It's really great to spend an hour or less reading a novel and then get an "A" on the quiz. I've found that you can study effectively in half the time if you are a dynamic reader.

DAVIN S. GOOD—Nebr. Wesleyan

This course enables one to use his potential, or at least begin to approach it. I believe that this course, more than anything else, has revolutionized my learning processes and abilities. Everyone should take this course.

509—43% to 2821—80%

NICHOLAS WHITNEY—U of N

I found this course to be very beneficial. One of the outstanding results has been that my grades in reading courses such as English, and history have improved from mediocrity to superiority.

1023—35% to 2320—60%

MERIAM SCHNEIDER—U of N

Through Reading Dynamics you get a better understanding of the physical requirements and possibilities in reading, and an awareness that one can vary the speed of reading to suit the material read. You also learn study techniques that are most helpful.

387—78% to 1606—94%

JOHN P. HOLLAND—Neb. Univ.

If you really make a serious effort to learn the Reading Dynamics skills, it can be of enormous benefit to you. When you have a lot of material to read, it can be invaluable in saving your time and will greatly help you organize your thoughts on the material.

303—80% to 1906—80%

FAYE ANDREWS—U of N

I feel that with the help of recall patterns and faster reading I am able to get more out of my reading.

189—75% to 2750—68%

ROBERT W. MALMQUIST, JR.—Nebr. Wesleyan

Just think how nice it would be to take care of that English and be able to go a date tonight instead of spending the evening at your desk.

617—83% to 2400—87%

GEORGE C. WITT—Nebr. Wesleyan

Reading the old way is old-fashioned, outdated, and boring.

465—69% to 2248—60%

SCOTT SHERRILL—U of N Graduate student

It can help your grades by helping speed up reading and at the same time improve comprehension.

463—82% to 2180—86%

Evelyn Wood READING DYNAMICS

Final FREE Mini-Lesson
For The November Series
Today—Monday, November 4 5 pm & 7 pm
Classroom 1601 "P" St. 435-2168

November Classes Begin

Tuesday, November 5th at 3 pm & 7 pm

Out Before Christmas

No Thanksaiving Conflict

