University athletes serve as part-time Lincoln policemen

by Bill Smitherman

 If you think the policeman who gaveyou a ticket in Joly looked familiar, you a ticket in July looked familiar, you may have seen him on the you may have seen him University gridiron this fall.
Uriversity athletes have bee University athletes have been serving with the Lincoln police in the ummer for over twenty years, according to Lincoin Police Captain, Dale nd training. and training.
The University athletic department recommends athletes to the Police Department for the summer program, dama said.
MOST MEMBERS of the regular force are married and like to takur take fors vacations in the summer, he connued. The student replacements allow the regular force to take thens rength. The athlete-officers go through very ittle training because of the short time they spend with the force, Adams One day is spent in orientation.
Ouring this time the new policemen are told what is to be expected of behave in certain s.tuations, when hey can and cannot arrest, and how THEY ARE also taken to the firing range and shown how to use the guns hat they will be carrying, he said. We spend care time telling them when they cand can't use their While they are with them." Adams The student-pfficers perform the same duties as regular police. They are armed and have the same authority nd responsibility, he said.

THE SUMMER officers are never Adams said. They our onways ac. mpanied by a senior officer. gram enjoy their work, he said. It is

Sports Editior
Besides Nebraska's 79.66 vietory over Big Eight power Colorado Monday night at the Coliceum, another event which may prove to be more Street barn.
Instead of the usual halftime grade school basketball game, NU gymperformed cash Jake Geier's squad for the 7,000 spectators. This demonstration was excellent and with the comic routine that concluded the show, the intermission program was show, the intermis. the best this season.
We have only heard favorable comments about the show -a show we heave recoummended for two years hat rather than letting some youngsters mess around to kill mess around to kill 20 minutes because of the lack of ingenuity of NU's administration.
After concluding our three-part series on the so-called minor winter sports of wrestling, swimming and gymnastics, we feel programs such as Monday night's demonstration before the basketball crowd is the best way to promote the entire Nebraska athletic program. These sports need exposure and we feel once the spats fans sports need exposure and we feel once the sperts fans see these sports they will appreciate the work of these will appreciate the dedicated athletes.
NU's gymnastics team is far from perfect as anyone sitting in the perfect as anyone sitting in the last row of the Coliseum could easily deduce.
But the show was excellent and we thank Coach Geier, his team and all thank Coach Geier, his team and all those concerned for finally listenin to our pleas for a good halftime show. But ne corner and with ten games, the athletic department should take at. vantage of haiftumes at basketball games with the following sugges-tions-lettiving football awards and letter letting the wrestling team perform performances, letting the gynasu sing. Also, permitting several combos composed of NU athletes perform ana ping pong game between Bol Devaney and Don Bryant. How abou a speaker such as Bob Richar's or Jesse $O w e n s ~ o r ~$ Jesse Owens or a basketball game between the Husker footballers and NU press media.

BASKETBALL NOTES -Marvin scoring continues to lead NU by Bob Gratopp with 12 and Brooks with 11.9 . Leroy Chalk leads in rebounds with 209 ahead in rebounds with 209 , ahead of Brook with 138 and Gratopp with Missouri won 10 of 11 home game Steve Honeycutt needs only 5 guard in hi in his remaining 4 games to peconts the Wildcat's fifth all-time top scorer the Coliseum to close Nebraska' home cage season at 7:35 $\mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Saturday.

OUR THANKS to all coaches wh helped us in our series on minor sports -we hope our efforts have sports - we hope our effiorts hat helped boost your sports. Next week
