

Shepard keeps fields in shape

by Mark Gordon
Sports Editor

Who is the last person in the athletic department to leave at night and the first to arrive in the morning? It's probably Bill Shepard, who as grounds director, is responsible for maintaining 12 acres of athletic fields as well as the Memorial Stadium indoor track, fieldhouse, baseball area and the outdoor track. He also has yellow clay for the pitcher's mound here," he said. "This clay stands up better and after three days of looking, the city was kind enough to give us some from a Vine Street sewer project."

While Shepard said he has the headaches of any job, he felt that assorted tasks ranging from cleaning up the stadium after football games to putting up and taking down the bleachers at the Coliseum for basketball games.

"The spring is the busiest time of the year for me," he said, "since baseball, track and football all want to be outside at the same time, and they want their own field to be in perfect condition."

TO MAINTAIN THE BASEBALL field, six football fields and the other athletic grounds he supervises, Shepard estimates that annually he uses, between 400 and 500 pounds of blue and rye grass, four tons of fertilizers and about 200 gallons of field marking paint.

This summer, Shepard and his two assistants will paint all the permanent seats in the Coliseum and refinish the seats in Memorial Stadium's north and south sections. This summer, the department will employ 20 persons to help with the painting. Usually eight employees are hired in the summer.

Although he terms the fall football season the easiest time, Shepard said it is his duty to have the tackling and blocking dummies and other equipment at the practice fields and to store them each night after workouts. He added he also opens and locks up the gates for many athletic contests.

"Now we must drag and maintain the track and baseball infield daily," he said. "We also have to get the football fields ready for spring football which starts April 13."

FOR MOWING AND GROUND upkeep, Shepard has two tractors, five grass mowers and an electric truck for hauling purposes. But sometimes he needs items that are not standard equipment items.

"I've been out trying to find some running persons off the athletic fields is the toughest part of his job. Since "I don't like to get nasty."

A 20-year employe with the University who began in the dairy department at east campus, Shepard served three years as an assistant to veteran groundskeeper Walt Renter. He then assumed his present capacity eight years ago, when Renter, a 30-year groundskeeper, retired.

"This job has been a lot of fun," he said, adding that learning to play handball and paddleball and going to five football games in five consecutive years ranks as the greatest thrills he has had from his association with the athletic staff.

constitution made by the convention are listed in the order in which they appear in the constitution.

Preamble — The clause acknowledging that the constitution and ASUN is ordained and established with the consent of the Board of Regents was deleted.

ARTICLE II. Purposes — The part of the Article which listed the purpose of ASUN to serve as an agency to maintain a relationship between students, faculty and administration was deleted.

It was replaced with a clause stating that ASUN should represent the best interests of the students and "strive for the largest legitimate influence of the students in the functioning of the University."

ARTICLE VII. Powers of Organs — The second vice-president of ASUN was given the additional duty of serving as NSA coordinator. In the same Article the Executive committee of ASUN would appoint the APP delegates and the Senate would have the power to approve or disapprove of the appointments.

Also in Article VII a clause was added to the rights of students recognizing that students have all those rights enumerated in the Bill of Rights and Student in the Academic Community document.

McCullister also said that filing for 1969-70 ASUN offices begins Monday. Offices are open for Student Senate, Advisory Boards, and ASUN executive positions.

Applicants must register in the ASUN office and return a petition with 35 signatures to qualify.

Concluding cabaret Renaissance theme

by Susie Jenkins
Nebraskan Staff Writer

The last in Charlie Armstrong's Cabaret series promises to be far from the least of his Sunday night happenings, according to the show's producer-director-manager.

Renaissance Cabaret will involve faculty and students, and Armstrong hopes to spotlight the importance of individual "life styles," a concept extremely import to Renaissance man.

"People at the University have a life style they really dig," Armstrong said. "We'd like to have everyone who comes to this cabaret wear a depiction of his life style, something that is you."

ARMSTRONG EMPHASIZED that this does not mean Cabaret will be a costume party, but rather the audience should wear those clothes which reveal the inner self.

Renaissance Cabaret is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the Nebraska Union South Crib. English Professor Stephen Hilliard will serve as master of ceremonies, and major productions include a light show and a mysterious finale. Armstrong would not divulge plans for this part of the program.

Performers include the Liberation Blues Band; the Impromptu Theater group who will perform depending on the outcome of an anti-war demonstration in Omaha; Prof. and Mrs. George Wolf (English), performing a dulcimer duet; formal fencing matches; a combo with Huey Rowe-Anderson, Ellie Peterson, Jarvis Green, Fred Anderson and Vic Lewis; and Armstrong will play Elizabethan bawdy songs on his lute.

"CRITICS MAKE a mistake in comparing Cabaret to anything else,"

Armstrong said. "It's an amateur production that can't be compared to professional efforts."

Armstrong may not return to the University in the fall and has been thinking about the future of Cabaret.

"If anyone takes over, he must have imagination. He can't be afraid of something different, experimental," he said.

Armstrong has many ideas for future cabarets, including an all-Black production.

"We have enough talent in the African Association and the Afro-American Collegiate Society to put on the show," he said. "Cabaret is a medium in itself. What they could do for education in a good solid way is unlimited."

"The ability is available," Armstrong said. "The problem is you have to dig for it."
