

Tankers capture fourth straight

Nebraska's swimming team set another school record at the Coliseum pool Friday, capturing its fourth straight dual meet win with a 64-31 verdict over Oklahoma State.

The Cornhuskers established two individual pool marks in the process of winning nine of 12 events.

SPORTS

NEW RECORDS were set by Dave Schmidt with a 2:05.2 clocking in the 200-yard backstroke and George Sefzik with a 5:06.9 time in the 500-yard freestyle.

Schmidt and Sefzik were double winners for coach John Reta. Schmidt placed first in the 200-yard individual medley and Sefzik won the 1000-yard freestyle in addition to their record setting performances.

Dave Backer also was a dual winner, sweeping the 100 and 200-yard freestyles.

THE HUSKERS close out their dual season Saturday against defending Big Eight champion Kansas at Lawrence. The Jayhawks also captured the title in 1968.

Huskers' Hawkins sets record

NU trackmen bomb CU

The Nebraska track team kept its perfect dual meet record intact, defeating Colorado, 78½-43½, Saturday afternoon at Boulder.

The Huskers have won all three duals this season by at least 30 points.

The meet's top performance was turned in by NU freshman Jim Hawkins. The former Omaha North standout set a meet record in the 1000-yard run with a 2:13.5 mark. It was the first time Hawkins had ever competed in the event, placing him among the Big Eight leaders.

NU's mile relay team shattered the meet record with a 3:18.8 clocking. The Huskers' previous best time this season had been 3:21.9.

DON QUARRIE tied the meet record in the 60-yard dash with a :06.1 clocking.

Randy Butts gained his second sweep of the season in the hurdles, taking the 60-yard highs in :07.6 and the 60-yard lows in :06.9.

The Nebraska wrestling team rebounded to salvage a 15-15 tie to Colorado Saturday afternoon after dropping a narrow 17-15 decision at Wyoming Friday night.

Bob Orta and Joe George were the only Huskers to capture two wins over the weekend.

NU's dual meet record stands at 3-5-1.

The Nebraska gymnastics team had two individual winners but dropped a 151.15-139.10 decision to Oklahoma.

Vic McWilliams captured first place in the side horse and Hoppy Batten won the high bar to lead the Huskers. Batten, a freshman from Lincoln Southeast, was second in the all-around competition.

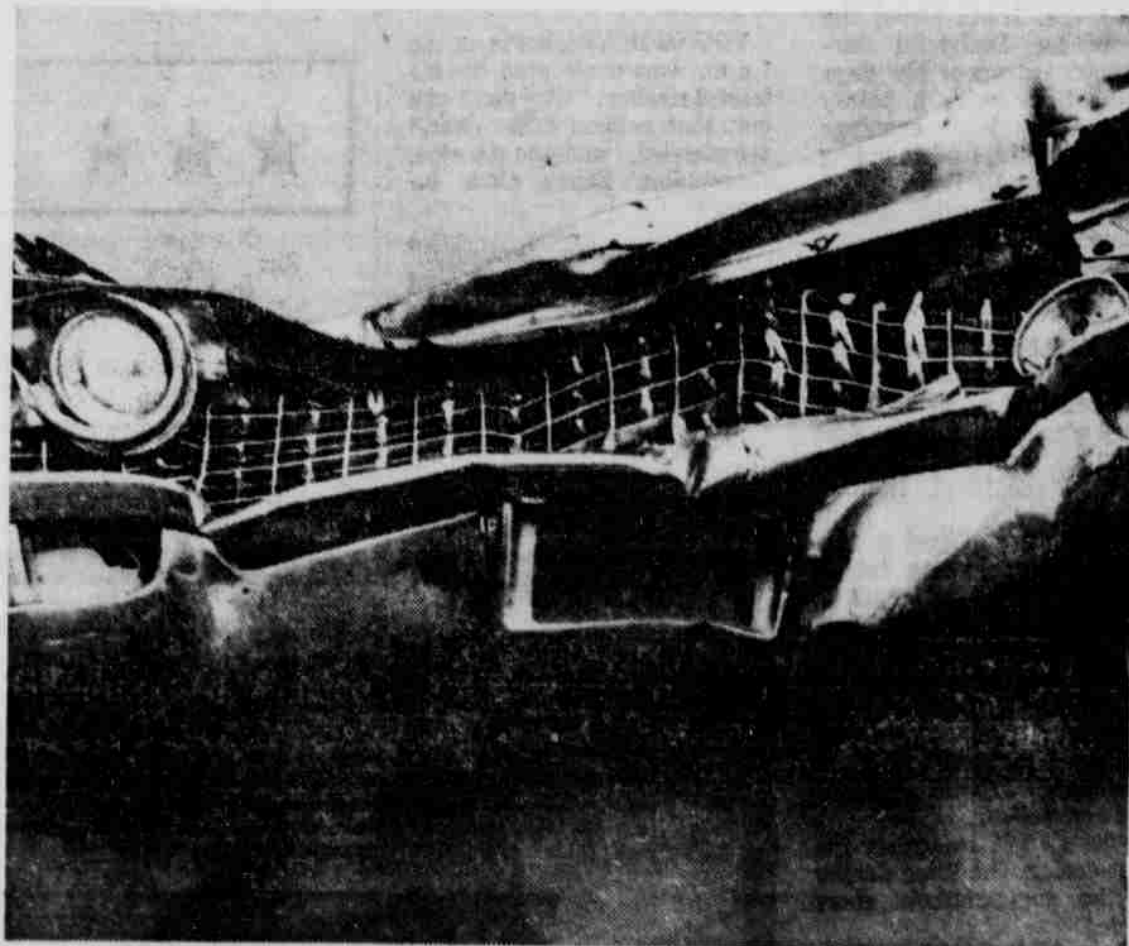

Coach Francis Allen's gymnasts travel to Minneapolis Saturday to meet Minnesota and Iowa in a triangular.

NEBRASKA'S FRESHMAN basketball team pushed its season record to 7-2 with a 70-51 win over the Iowa State frosh. The Cyclone frosh defeated the Huskers earlier in the season, 73-61.

Tony Riehl paced the frosh in scoring with 18 points. Tom Gregory (12), Randy Watts (12), and Ambrose Ratcliff (11) also were in double figures.
