Choctaws await Tuesday IM title

by STEVE SINCLAIR
Assistant Sports Editor

There will either be a distinct Lincoln Northeast or Green Bay, Wis. flavor in the All-University intramural championship game at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday night at the Coliseum.

Schramm IV meets Theta Xi at the Coliseum Monday night at 8:30 p.m. for the right to meet the independent champion Choctaws for the All-University championship.

IF THETA XI makes it to the finals, three former members of Northeast State championship teams will tangle in the IM championship.

Wally Winter and Bill Fagler, both starters for Theta Xi, were standouts on Northeast's 1967 state championship team. Bill Slaughter, the starting center for the Choctaws, was a member of the 1967 team and a starter on the 1968 team as Northeast captured back to back state titles.

Schramm IV is led by Green Bay products and Husker footballers, Jerry Tagge, Jim Anderson, and Dave Mason. Pat Morell, another starter for Schramm IV, played football at Lincoln Northeast as a sophomore, before moving to Wichita, Kan.

THETA XI defeated Kappa Alpha Psi Friday night, 49-39, to advance to Monday night's semi-final game. The Theta Xi starters include Winter, Fagler, Bob Boettcher of Fairmont, Greg Lay of Fremont, and Lee Rohrs of Johnson.

The Choctaws' starters are Slaughter, Dennis Beckmann of Wilber and Ron Hartmann, Tom Hellerich and Dick Hahn, all of Lincoln. Hahn is a graduate student and a former standout at Nebraska Wesleyan.

Wrestlers triumph

The Nebraska wrestling team upset nationally-ranked Southern Illinois, 13-12, Friday at the Coliseum.

The win pushed the Huskers' season record to 6-5-1.

NU's wrestlers will meet Missouri Wednesday night at the Coliseum before competing in the Big Eight wrestling championships on March 13 and 14 at Kansas State.

NU swimmers fifth

Nebraska swimming coach John Reta was pleased with his team's times, but disappointed in the way it placed in the Big Eight swimming meet at Iowa State last weekend.

THE HUSKERS captured fifth place behind champion Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa State and Missouri.

The highlight of the meet for Nebraska came in Friday's action when three school records were broken.

Spencer Luedke broke the 200-yard freestyle record in the preliminaries with a 1:47.765 clocking. He later placed third in the event.

Luedke combined with Dave Backer, George Sefzik, and Jim Pratt for a school record and second place finish in the 800-yard freestyle relay with a 7:21.106 mark.

BURNE HEMPLEMAN lowered his own school record in the 400-yard individual medley with a 4:40.373 clocking. He placed 12th.

Team Scoring — Kansas 563, Oklahoma 365, Iowa State 256, Missouri 217, Nebraska 198, Colorado 129, Oklahoma State 125.
