This is a daffodil.

It's fresh and pretty and very pick-able and it says spring is here and it's time. Time to do something about your wardrobe that's maybe a little tired and stale and stuffy considering all that's happened in fashion. The thing to do? See us and slip into some 1970 things. A no bra dress, for instance. (You can't get more 1970 than this!) And something in the way of pantsdressing. And perhaps a jumper. (Of course, a jumper!) And maybe even some new little bareness for the evening hours. We'll not only show you all the newness. We'll work with you until you feel as fresh and pretty and pick-able as a daffodil yourself. Like to start spring this way? An hour or two with us is all it takes.
