

Geology department offers new courses

To comply with changes in the Arts and Sciences College geology department is changing two courses and adding one.

Beginning next fall Arts and Sciences students will still be required to take three semesters of science courses, but will only need one semester

Yippies unite!

At least long enough for Dan Ladely, Yippie campaign manager, to acquire the signatures of all people who intend to run for positions in ASUN on the Yippie slate. Ladely can be found wandering around the Union at almost any time of the day or sometimes in the Daily Nebraskan office. The party affiliation papers must be turned in by March 24 and must be signed by anyone who wishes to be affiliated with a party in the elections.

"Power to the people!" Ladely hypothesized.

of a lab science, said J. A. Fagerstrom, geology department chairman.

Fagerstrom said a new three hours course without a lab will be offered in the fall. Geology 5, "Life of the Past", will be a nonprofessional course emphasizing observation in Morrill Hall.

"We want the students to see in the museum what the lecturer is talking about in class," he said.

Another change in the department will allow students to register for Geology 1, "Physical Geology", or Geology 2, "Historical Geology", without signing up for corresponding labs. Fagerstrom continued. Labs for Geology 3 and 4 will be offered for one hour credit to students who do need labs.

"The courses were changed to allow students more flexibility in satisfying the science requirement," he commented.

Geology 5, will not be open to geology majors and majors will be required to take the lab courses.

King film tickets now on sale

Tickets for the film on Martin Luther King can be purchased at the Nebraska Theater or in the Nebraska Union Monday or Tuesday. The film will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Nebraska Theater with proceeds going to programs which further the work of King.

TEACHERS Advisory Board candidates (7 candidates): Dor Adams, Connie Barry, Gretchen Seiler Davis, Bev Goodenberger, Tom Lonnquist, Dru Mort and Linda Thurber.

Because some advisory board members elected last year serve two-year terms, Nees said he is not sure at this time how many advisory board positions will be filled in the ASUN spring elections.

D. K. Wheeler speaks Monday

University of Western Australia educator, D. K. Wheeler, will discuss "Current Issues and Problems in Education Today" at the University of Nebraska Teachers College today.

He will address faculty and students in the Teachers College at 3:30 p.m. March 23 in the Nebraska Union auditorium, according to Galen Saylor, professor of secondary education.

During his visit to Nebraska, Wheeler will meet with members of the Lincoln Public Schools and will visit with schools in the Omaha area under auspices of the Omaha Westside Community School District.
