

What would happen to war if the men killed refused to be buried? That question is answered in a play originally written to protest World War I. The play, Bury the Dead, will be presented on April 10, 11 and 12 at the Hungry Id.

East campus days are Western Days

East campus goes western for the first Western Days celebration April 10-19, according to Jim Koch, chairman of the East Campus Union Culture Committee.

Western Days will begin with a free concert at the East Campus Union auditorium, April 10, at 8 p.m., featuring The Original Cast ("One Tin Soldier").

On Monday, April 13, Mel Steen, director of the State Game Commission, will speak in the East Union auditorium at 2 p.m.. At 7 p.m. on Wednesday, April 15, Marvin Kivett, director of the Nebraska State Historical Society will speak in Burr Hall. Western films will also be shown in the East Union during the morning on both of these days.

The University Round-up, formerly the All-Ag Picnic, will be held Tuesday, April 14, at 3:30 p.m. in the tractor testing area north of the East Union.

Teams from different living units and student organizations will participate in a variety of western games including a "bucking barrel," a fast draw contest, and a greased pig contest.

The game awards and trophies will be presented at a barbecue, open to all faculty and students, at 5:30 p.m.

Various folk singing groups will perform during the Bar-B-Que, followed by a free street dance with Larry B and Blockbusters from 7 to 9 p.m. in front of the East Union.

Western Days will continue into the second week-end with the annual Block and Bridle Club Quarter Horse Show April 16 at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. April 17 at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum. On April 19 at 8 a.m., the Club is sponsoring its first Appaloosa show also at the Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The Rodeo Club's University Rodeo will be held April 17-18 at the Fairgrounds. Performances will be at 7:30 p.m. April 17 and at 1:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. on April 18.

Norelco can shave you closer than a blade, and count how many times it does it.

1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10,11,12,13,14,15,16,17,18 shaves. On a single charge.

The Norelco Rechargeable Tripleheader Shaver was made to do two things:

To shave you as close or closer than a stainless steel razor blade.

And to give you up to twice as many shaves per charge as any other rechargeable shaver.

Here's how it works.

The Rechargeable Tripleheader has 18 self-sharpening rotary blades, inside of 3 Microgroove™ shaving heads.

The heads actually float, to follow the curves of your face.

They go in where your face curves in, and out where your face curves out.

And because the blades are rotary, they shave your beard in every direction at once. (If you don't think that means anything, feel your face. Feel how your beard grows in different directions on different parts of your face?)

The Norelco Tripleheader also has a pop-up trimmer, so you can see exactly what you're trimming.

It has a Charge Indicator that lights up when it's charging.

It has a Shave Counter to count your shaves. And it gives you nearly twice as many shaves per charge as any other rechargeable.

So if you're shaving with a blade, feel around your chin and neck and upper lip.

If it feels like you could use a closer shave, get yourself a Norelco Rechargeable.

And shave your whole face for a change.

you can't get any closer
