"It seems to me that the earth may be borrowed, but not bought. It may be used, but not owned. It gives itself in response to love and tending, offers its seasonal flowering and fruiting. But We are tenants and not possessors, lovers and not masters."

(My Destination's)

Anywhere, U.S.A.

by Eric W. Lynch

Flying through the countryside on a Trailways bus
don't know where I'm going but I know I must Got to get away from false values I've known somehow I know I've got to make it on my own.

Darkness to the left, darkness to the right behind the sun breaks a starry night Before me there's something yet to be revealed
It's known as the future and right now it's concealed.

My Destination's Anywhere, U.S.A.
My Destination's Anywhere, U.S.A.
Tired of the cities and the rioting mobs
Tired of the rat race and the city hall slobs

Got to keep on moving on down this lonely track
this time I know there'll be no turning back
Got to get away from false values I've
known
somehow I know I've got to make it on my own.
