

Art loan plan begins Monday

Various paintings will be made available to students in an art loan program beginning Monday.

According to Gretchen Davis, chairman of the Art Lending Library.

Students can check out paintings for the entire school year and pay no rent she explained. The paintings, already paid for by student fees, have been displayed in the union.

Loans will be made between 2-5 p.m. Monday through Friday in the north-south conference room of the union.
