

Union presents 'Times'

The Nebraska Union is presenting the Ewing Street Times as the first selection of its Coffee House Concert Series Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Union.

The Times is billed as a well-rounded, good-time group.

Chris McElroy, chairman of the Union Coffee House Committee, says, "the main idea behind the series is to get good, low-priced entertainment for a change." All five groups scheduled in the series were block-booked to hold down costs.

An expected $1500 deficit will be picked up by the Union, according to Tom Lonnquist, president of the Union Program Council.

Admission to the concerts will be 75 cents per person.

The rest of the series follows:

—October 15-16: Bittersweet. Duo from Atlanta. Sings folk and folk-rock material from sources as varied as Three Dog Night and Bob Dylan.

—November 19-20: Fats and Dave. Dave McIntosh, formerly of the Kirby Stone Four, and Fats Johnson, former lead singer for the New Christy Minstrels, combine music and comedy.

—February 4-5: Chuck Mitchell. Folk singer in cabaret tradition.

—April 22-23: Chet Nichols. Gifted guitarist who writes and sings his own material.

The Byrds, folk-rock stars of "Mr. Tambourine Man," "Turn, Turn, Turn," and "Eight Miles High" fame will appear in concert with the Flying Burrito Brothers tonight at 8 p.m. in the Coliseum.
