

NEW IDEAS IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

Leader: Terry Graham

A look at recent recommended radical reforms in the elementary curriculum. We will discuss people such as Holt, Kohl, Glasser, and others in the English infant school field. Readings will be decided by the class.

2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, Smith Hall

THE STUDY OF AYN RAND AND OBJECTIVISM

Leader: I.R.S. Members

We will study Ayn Rand's philosophy of objectivism through her fiction (FOUNTAINHEAD, ATLAS SHRUGGED), her nonfiction (THE VIRTUE OF SELFISHNESS) and the Objectivist Newsletter, with Nathaniel Branden, another prominent objectivist.

7:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 11, Union

CONTEMPORARY RADICAL POLITICS

Leader: Jim Hubbard

We will discuss the history of classical anarchy: George Sorel's "Reflections on Violence," anarchy and Nihilism in the 19th Century Russia, etc. With a clear picture of what's been done before, we will read up on and discuss what's happening today in the U.S.A. Maybe decide what might happen tomorrow.

7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 7, Selleck RAM room

AMERICAN INDIAN CULTURE

Leader: Ralph Ware

It is as yet uncertain with what this course will deal. Subjects covered may include American Indian Culture and/or the problems of the American Indian today, both urban and reservation. The actual subject matter will rely upon agreement between the students registered for the class and the instructor.

7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 7, Selleck 7005

PRINCIPLES OF COOKING

Leader: James Roberts

Our first meeting will deal with the philosophy of cooking. In later meetings in my kitchen we will prepare good foods economically, using the philosophy we discussed. No one involved in this course will be or become a "gourmet;" the word means little to me, but close attention will be paid to method.

LIMIT — 8 people
5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, 219 Andrews

BITS, BYTES AND BEHAVIOR

Leader: Ed Anson

An information-processing approach to the study of the behavioral sciences. Emphasis will be on the application of computers. Students will become proficient at programming behavioral systems. Previous experience in Psychology, Sociology, Anthropology, Economics, Political Science or Speech Communication will prove helpful but unnecessary. Interest in research is essential since each student will initiate a research project. The University's IBM 360 will be made available without charge.

8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 8, Selleck 7005

PERSONAL LIBERTY & POLITICAL STRUCTURES

Leader: Dan Schafer

This course will attempt to discover relationships between forms of government and the maximization of personal liberty. Some readings will be provided. The ideal is that everyone will learn a bit and teach a bit.

7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2436 "A" (Rides provided)

RELEVANT ECONOMICS

Leader: Bert Evans

This course, or discussion, would examine current major economic and social problems as they are faced by the nation, the state and communities. The institutionalist view of economic behavior as well as J. K. Galbraith's approach to economic development will be emphasized and contrasted with "textbook" and "orthodox" approaches. Heavy reliance would be placed upon class views and discussion after a minimum of "opening up" the discussion topic.

7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, Schramm

ERICH FROMM: THE ART OF LOVING

Leader: Anna Alphonse

This course will be of short-term duration, 4 to 5 sessions, and concentrated on only one of Erich Fromm's books, The Art of Loving. The teaching method will be dialogic rather than lecture and contemporary films will be used from time to time.

7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, Wesley Foundation

MALE-FEMALE RELATIONSHIP EDUCATION SERIES

Leader: Sue Tidball

Persons interested in participating in this course are required to interview with Dr. Pete Wirtz or Mrs. Tidball prior to acceptance at the beginning of the first session. Series will be a 5-week, 2-hour sessions. Five men and five women will be selected. A description of the program is available in the office of Student Activities, 340 Nebraska Union.

Time and Place arranged.

THE DRAFT AND YOU

Leader: Lincoln Draft Information Service

This course will deal with the Selective Service System, its history and present functioning. One alternative discussed will be to "go action Army". Another alternative is killing or being killed.

Tuesday, Oct. 6, 7 p.m., Basement UMHE

BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHY

Leader: Jim Dean

This course will involve the taking and processing of films and prints. Experience would be helpful but is not essential. Class discussion will center around the finished prints. Camera required.

Thursday, Oct. 8, 3:30 p.m., Centennial Darkroom

FILM STUDIES

Leader: Harold Hoff

We will study motion picture techniques and analyze the way films are made, trying to discover what it is they have to say. Basically, the course will be divided into three phases; film analysis, study of film techniques, and, if the students wish, the making of our own motion pictures.

7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 7, Schramm

ASTROLOGY: ANCIENT ART OR SPACE-AGE SCIENCE?

Leader: Bonnie Armstrong

This class will place an emphasis on a scientific, investigative approach to astrology, as opposed to an esoteric approach. The relation of astrology to physics, sociology, anthropology, meteorology, and biology and the relation especially to mathematics will be stressed.

7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 8, Schramm

FOLK GUITAR

Leader: John Ingwersom

This course will deal mostly with guitar styles used in contemporary folk music. There can be more advanced work possible for those who are capable. The course will probably cover guitar styles of Peter, Paul, and Mary; Simon and Garfunkle; etc.

7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, Place arranged

ROCK AND ITS ROOTS

Leader: Tom Hubbell

This course is intended to acquaint the student with a basic background in rock music and any related areas: culture, art, etc. Any and all suggestions would be appreciated.

7:00 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, UMHE

A RADICAL APPROACH TO ECOLOGY

Leader: Nancy Rozman

A nitty-gritty look at the condition of our environment and what's been done so far.

A search into the fundamental causes of present ecological problems including the nature and structure of the government, the economy, and the prevailing life styles.

An examination of the links and barriers between ecology movements and other attacks on societal problems such as racism, poverty, and imperialism.

The earth belongs to all the people — how do we get it back into their hands?

Length of course to depend on interest and activity of participants. Reading materials to be paperbacks, magazine articles, and xeroxed materials.

4 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, Place arranged.

UNDERGROUND MAGAZINE

Leader: Tom Hafemeister

This course will work on a magazine containing all forms of literature in the hope that someone will read it. All contributors welcome.

Monday, Oct. 5, 3:30 p.m., Smith Hall

VERY BASIC GUITAR COURSE

Leader: Tammie Mulligan and

Pat Lonquist

The course will be geared to students who know little or nothing about guitar. They will be taught basic chords and strums to accompany folk music.

7:30 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 8, Pi Beta Phi