

Cornhuskers preparing for strong Missouri rush

by JIM JOHNSTON
Associated Sports Writer
Nebraska escaped non-conference play with limited injuries, but the flu bug has hit the Husker camp as they prepare for their Big Eight opener against Missouri Saturday. Linebacker Pat Morell and fullback Dan Schneiss returned to the practice field Tuesday after short bouts with the flu, but were still feeling weak. Quarterback Jerry Tagge left practice early.

Bowl scouts descend for Huskers

Bowl scouts are keeping close watch on Big Eight favorites Nebraska and Missouri. Four bowls will be represented Saturday at Memorial Stadium when the Huskers entertain the Tigers at 1:30 p.m. Representatives from the Sugar, Orange, Cotton and Liberty Bowls will be in the press box.

The Sugar Bowl is sending three members.

Coed football needs applicants

Applicants are still being taken for coed flag football, the Intramuras and Recreation Department announced. A team must consist of eight students, half girls and half boys. The names of team members should be turned into 121 Nebraska Hall.

"A lot of guys are tired," said Nebraska coach Dod Devaney. "That's why we didn't run sprints tonight. I figured we would take it easy."

But the flu isn't the only enemy Devaney is worried about. The Missouri pass rushing attack could be another bad bug for the Huskers.

"Missouri has a constant pass rush," pointed out Devaney. "We've done a good job in pass protection so far this year, but we haven't had as tough a job as Missouri will give us yet."

Devaney denied the possibility that the Huskers will change their passing attack because of the constant rush.

"The rush will make us lose a few of our patterns," admitted Devaney, "but we're still going to use most of our patterns and make some adjustments in protection."

Cornhuskers' 1971 football schedule is rearranged

Due to a schedule conflict, Nebraska will play seven home football games during the 1971 season. The first four games will be in Lincoln.

An away game with Northwestern (Sept. 25) has been dropped from the schedule and a home game with Utah State added. The Texas A & M game in Lincoln, originally set for Oct. 2, will be played Sept. 25. The Cornhuskers will entertain Utah State Oct. 2.

The 1972 game with Minnesota has also been switched to Lincoln.

A Big Red just for men?
That's unenlightened, we stormed.
Surely you've heard of women!
Women? Our Parker designers blushed.
(they lead very sheltered lives.)
Women, we sighed. Liberated, equal, independent, unshackled, brave and glorious women.
Who says they don't deserve to own an equally funky red pen? Why with their orange-dotted-green-striped-purple-paisley'd gear, they're every bit as funky as men.

And who says they don't have the same right to a soft tip pen that's refillable?

They can't afford throwaways, either.
They're just as short of bread.

Still, we pointed out, women are somewhat different. Their hands are usually smaller. So how about a not-so-big Big Red they can really get a grip on?
And their hands are already full. So how about putting their pen on a necklace?

That did it. Our designers were all choked up.
So now there's a Big Red for Women.
Who says you can't buy a swinging gift for $5?

BIG RED WRITES BLUE FOR WOMEN. REFILLS WITH 6 COLORS IN CAMPUS STORES AND DOWNTOWN. $6. MEN'S VERSION, SAME PRICE. DON'T YOU KNOW SOMEBODY WORTH IT?
