

Phil Pfeiffer flies to intramural honors

Phil Pfeiffer, an offensive halfback for the Fagowies, has been selected intramural player of the week.

Pfeiffer ran for five touchdowns, passed for another and scored two extra points in leading the Fagowies to a 42-12 win over H.E.P. It was the third straight win for the independent team.

"Jim Gillman and Cliff Sather made key blocks on those runs," pointed out Pfeiffer. "And Gary Russell and Craig Lightfoot have done outstanding jobs on defense for us."

Pfeiffer, a junior from Arlington, had a part in 38 of his team's 42 points. He believes the strength of his team lies in the fact that they have a complete platoon system.

"I hope our offense continues

to play as one unselfish unit as it has in the first three games," explained Pfeiffer. "We should continue to have good luck if it does."

What's your number, student?

That's no newfangled peace thing. That's just lovable Big Red. The funky red pen that likes to hang around girls. Instead of a clip there's a necklace—because Big Red believes women look best in chains. Girls who don't agree can skip the necklace and just use the loop on top to hang Big Red from scarves or beads. Or a skinny thong belt. Big Red hates to run out on anyone. But when he does, he refills by cartridge in a covey of colors. That's our swinger, Big Red, from Parker. For $5, he's a great gift.
