

Takes the lead . . . with a half mile left Nebraska's Greg Carlberg challenges Jerome Howe (left) and Rich Hitchcock of Kansas State. Oklahoma State's George Stewart trails.

PAUL HARVEY COMES to LINCOLN

The familiar "He'll o Americans" will be heard in Lincoln, Nov. 11, 1970 at Pershing Municipal Auditorium. Mr. Harvey is sponsored by the Lancaster County Chapter of Muscular Dystrophy. ORDER NOW.....

all students — half price — with student I.D. cards

New brew for the new breed

Carlberg Big Eight conference champ

Stillwater, Okla. — Nebraska's cross country team had some good news and some bad news in the Big Eight Conference meet here Saturday.

The good news was supplied by Greg Carlberg who set a course record of 11:53 in winning the four mile grind. His victory came in a swift field that left defending champion Jerome Howe of Kansas State no better than fourth.

Kansas State's Rich Hitchcock was second and Dennis McGuire of Iowa State third. Oklahoma State's George Stewart, who previously held the course record at 19:16, was fifth.

In the team scoring race, however, Nebraska finished a dismal seventh. Missouri won the title while pre-meet favorite Kansas State wound up third and Kansas, last year's winner, slid to fifth.

Carlberg stayed in a pack of five runners before sprinting away with 400 yards left. At the finish he held a ten yard advantage and was moving away from Hitchcock.

"I saw a purple shirt and thought it must be Howe," Carlberg said later. "I was a little worried because there have been times when he's been behind me and ended up in front."

Carlberg wasted little time celebrating Saturday's victory. He knows the demands of distance running and was up early the next morning on an 18-mile training run.

The NCAA is coming up in two weeks and as Carlberg puts it, "There are a few things I want to do yet."

Nebraska frosh humiliate Iowa State's best, 49-26

Ames, Ia. — There's a sign hanging in the Iowa State freshman locker room. It reads: "Through these doors walk the finest athletes ever recruited at Iowa State."

But Nebraska's freshman, who have always had a winning tradition, humbled Iowa State's best 49-26 here Friday afternoon.

Dave Humm's passing and Don Westbrook's running sparked the Nebraska attack which exploded for 28 points in the second half.

Westbrook, from Cheyenne, Wyo., gained 110 yards on 37 attempts to lead the Huskers. He scored on runs of one, five and two yards.

Humm hurled two touchdown passes and ran two yards for another. Jeff Hill and Jim Garson were on the receiving end of Humm's aeriels.

Iowa State grabbed a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 40-yard pass interception by Bob Bolks. Nebraska tied the score in the same stanza on Westbrook's one-yard prance.

The Cyclones scored again before Nebraska charged back for a 21-14 halftime bulge.

The Nebraska freshman stand 3-0 on the year and will close out their season when they entertain Kansas State at Memorial Stadium Friday afternoon.

Calendar

Tuesday, Nov. 10

4-H Club: Racial Program — 7 p.m., C. Y. Thompson Library.

NSID Meeting: "Field of Interior Design and Environmentics" by Ross Great-house — 7:30 p.m., Union.

UNSEA Meeting — 8 p.m., Union. Public Lecture: "Form and Meaning in Modern Sculpture" — 8 p.m., Sheldon Gallery Auditorium.

American Sculpture Exhibition — Sheldon Gallery. Block & Bridle: "Ham Sales".

College students have high ideals about helping people . . .
Is your idealism worth $3.50?

For $3.50 a semester you can raise the money needed to support the scholarship and financial aid program of the University of Nebraska. A program which turned down 75% of the eligible applicants for lack of funds.

Show your commitment. Back PACE. SIGN THE PACE PETITION IN YOUR LIVING UNIT.