Homecoming queen finalists . . . Marty Liggett, Jayne Andrews, Barbara Callahan, Dru Mort, Linda Brown, Janet Smayda, Rita Becker, Pam Whitted, Annette Hudson and Barbara White. Voting will be by college between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. Wednesday. Students in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics will vote at the East Union; Arts and Sciences at the Nebraska Union; Engineering and Architecture at Ferguson Hall, Teachers College at Teachers College; Graduate and Professional and Business Administration at Love Library. After 6 p.m. all students may vote in the Union.

Cliff Hardin Day is November 14

Former Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin and his wife will be in the spotlight Saturday, November 14. Cliff Hardin Day will coincide with the University's 1970 Homecoming festivities.

The former chancellor left the campus in 1969 to become U.S. Secretary of Agriculture. During the pre-game show in Memorial Stadium, Hardin will receive a special memento.

University alumni and the public are invited to a luncheon honoring Hardin and his family Saturday, 11:30 a.m., in the Nebraska Union Centennial Room. Tickets for the luncheon are available at the NU Alumni Association office, Nebraska Union.
