

Kinney, Harper are questions

Nebraska I-back Jeff Kinney and defensive end Willie Harper, injured during the Kansas State game have caused concern in the Husker camp.

"They don't look as sure now as they did Monday," said coach Bob Devaney. "We won't know if they'll be ready for Saturday until either Thursday or Friday."

KLMS plans Paris POW dialogue

Radio Station KLMS plans to telephone the North Vietnamese delegation at the Paris peace talks Tuesday, Nov. 24, in an effort to obtain information about Nebraska prisoners of war (P.O.W.'s).

The station also hopes to open a channel of communication between P.O.W.'s and their relatives, according to a KLMS news release. The program will be broadcast 7-8 a.m.

Huskers undefeated

pected. Devaney explained the reason:

"Business manager Bill Fisher thought it would be a good pop and hot dog day and he wanted us to keep the people in the stands as long as possible. I think we did a good job of it."

Devaney was smiling. "You always hope for an undefeated season," he said. "But you know the chances of that happening are slight. I was just hoping we could repeat as conference champions at the beginning of the year."

The Huskers did that and then some. They sailed to a 10-0-1 campaign, tying with then third-ranked Southern California.

Devaney shook hands with reporters. He was going home for a while, then visiting a victory party at the Villager Inn Motel.

His Huskers had made it happen in 1970. Now he turns to New Years Day, 1971. Devaney wants to bring on the oranges, because it's a Big Red year.

Anyone related to P.O.W.'s or who knows of relatives in the Lincoln area is requested to call the station 489-3855, with specific information to pass on to the North Vietnamese delegation.

In addition to the Paris call, the program will feature interviews with Jack McCustian, a member of the Forgotten Americans Committee whose son is a P.O.W.; with Senator Carl Curtis in a recording prepared for "Radio Free Asia"; with Governor Norbert Tiemann; and with representatives from Mothers for Peace, Letters to Hanoi and other organizations concerned with the P.O.W. situation.

Listen for the sounds of love...

Where do you hear them?

In a plea for help from someone who needs it? In a dialogue between students and the Establishment? In a talk session for a marriage-on-the-rocks? At a Catholic Mass conducted in an Episcopal Church?

You'd be surprised.

The sounds of love are everywhere — anyone can hear them. If they listen.

The Paulists listen. But, like everything in life, the things that matter most are the hardest.

It isn't easy being a Paulist. But then, the best things in life never are.

Board of Regents makes new appointments

The NU Board of Regents Friday appointed Robert L. Egbert as dean of Teachers College.

Egbert, 47, has been directing the Office of Education's "Follow Through" program in Washington, D.C. since 1967. The program is designed to sustain and supplement gains made by Head Start and other pre-school programs.

Egbert, who received his PhD from Cornell University, has also served as research associate in the New York State Education Department.

In other action, the Board of Regents appointed assistant professor of political science Joan K. Wadlow as vice chairman of the department of political science.

The board also named Morris Schneider chairman of industrial and management systems engineering, and accepted the resignation of Robert D. Gibson, who has been dean of the College of Pharmacy since 1961.
