

SENIORS
Winter Commencement
Graduation Announcements
Are Now Available

Nebraska
Book Store
 1135 R Street
 Lincoln, Nebraska

$$$

Earn Money painlessly on campus by marketing travel programs. For details write with personal resume to:

Travel Co-ordinator
 5 Boylston St.,
 Cambridge, Mass. 02138

Just Arrived!
HARNESS BOOT

- Chocolate Ruffout
- Wax Hide
- Spanish Brandy

A/L SIZES

Lincoln Army & Western Store
 Corner 11th & "N" St.

McKuen may establish fund

As a result of his spring concert in Lincoln, poet-composer Rod McKuen may establish a scholarship fund for NU students of veterinary science, according to Herb M. Potter Jr., secretary of the University Foundation.

Potter said the Foundation has exchanged letters with McKuen's office since the concert and "from all our information and correspondence, there will be a fund in the very near future."

He expects a final answer by the end of next week. Last Tuesday a United Press International correspondent in Hollywood reported that McKuen announced he had already set up the fund.

Since the proposal isn't definite, Potter could give no information about the size of the fund.

Secretary of State Allan J. Beermann was in personal contact with McKuen during his stay in Lincoln. Beermann's account of University programs led to a proposal by McKuen to establish the fund, Potter said.

McKuen, describing himself as a long-time conservationist, told the UPI correspondent "There aren't enough young people going into the field, many of them because they can't afford it."

Although NU offers no degree in veterinary medicine, the Department of Veterinary Science provides a two-year course in pre-veterinary training.

Students must compete for admission to veterinary schools in Colorado, Kansas, Iowa or Oklahoma State universities, said Marvin J. Twiehaus, chairman of the veterinary science department.

NU pays out-of-state tuition costs for the students who are accepted at these schools, Twiehaus added.

McKuen said he plans to establish scholarship funds for other schools and to start a pet magazine which will donate its profits to animal hospitals.

Man is upsetting the balance of nature by destroying animal species, he said, and "We must do what we can before it is too late."

Snow postpones 'Spoon River'

The University Readers presentation of New Spoon River Anthology has been postponed because of weather.

The production will be given Jan. 13 and 14 at 8 p.m. in the Nebraska Union small auditorium.

Benefits galore in challenging position

Enjoy your work!

Learn about what's going on around you!

Never a dull moment in this exciting spot!

DAILY NEBRASKAN second semester staff position interviews will be January 17. Interested students can pick up applications and sign up for interviews in THE NEBRASKAN office before Jan. 11. All those who applied for staff positions earlier should sign up for interview times as soon as possible. Be where the action is!

A Film by Agnes Varda

Lions Love

The stars of this modern Romance are Viva, emerged from the Andy Warhol underground, and Ragni and Rado, the creators of Hair. The context of the film is Los Angeles, film-making and the assassination of Robert Kennedy.

Tuesday, Jan. 12

3, 7 & 9p.m.

Sheldon Gallery

Admission $1.

Special Films Series

Sponsored by Nebraska Union

2 for 1

4:30-6:00
 Daily

Der Loaf und Stein

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH OUR DOCTORS

Cliff's Notes are written by scholars who know how to help you study. Authors (predominantly Ph.D.'s) are carefully selected for their knowledge of a particular play or novel — plus ability to interpret its plot and characters so they will be relevant to your literature course. This careful attention to quality has made Cliff's Notes the most-used study aid on college campuses nationwide. (Pick the title you need today — you'll find it holds the key to efficient use of your study time.)

$1 at your bookseller or write:

Lincoln, Nebraska 68501