ARMY ROTC would like to join you in making your college education a Degree better. We offer the only Leadership Course taught at this University. If you have 4 undergraduate or graduate semesters remaining in college we may be able to help you. Our ROTC summer school is of six weeks duration. It is conducted in two sessions at Fort Knox, Kentucky. We will pay your way there and back and give you $215.00 besides for your trouble. While there you may rap with college students from 280 Universities about the world's ills. You may also rediscover yourself by getting your body in shape for the fall college campaign or whatever. When you return and enroll in the fall we'll pay you $50.00 for 16 hours of study a month—tax free. That figures to be $3.10 an hour any way you cut it. Don't knock it till you've tried it. On 1 May it will be later than you think. See or call us—in a hurry please!!!

Down the creek with a paddle?

As part of an effort to broaden its range of activities, the Intramural and Recreation Department is sponsoring a canoe trip down the Elkhorn River this weekend.

The trip, which is open to both University students and faculty, will begin Friday at Dead Timbers Recreation Area near West Point and end at Scribner.

"We don't care if anyone who wants to go has canoed before, we just want to have fun," intramural director Kermit McMurray said. "This trip will be a great chance to get out and see what nature has provided. Camping experience is not important."

University cars will take the ten three-man canoes to West Point. All other camping equipment will also be provided. There will be an $8 fee for students and $12.50 for faculty for food.

"We tried to set a reasonable rate, which almost anybody could afford," said McMurray. "We want to try and get girls interested in this too. And I want to emphasize again that this trip will be just a lot of fun."

There will probably be an organizational meeting Thursday evening, according to McMurray.

Anyone interested should contact the intramural office, room 121, Nebraska Hall.
