The Unimimes, the University mime troupe, will present a wide scope of mimes entitled Act Without Words at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday in Howell Theatre.

Ric Marsh, director of the troupe, said the show consists of several short skits, most light comedy, but some serious. In addition there are some abstract mimes which in some ways are very much like dance.

Tickets for the Unimime show are on sale at the Howell Theatre box office from 1-5 p.m. and at the door on the night of performance. Tickets cost $1.
