Mid-October finds Homecoming events occurring at the University of Nebraska, both up at UNO and here at UNL. On Friday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m. UNO will feature George Carlin, the comedian who made Hal Sleet, the hippie-dippie weatherman famous with such lines as "Hey man--que pasa?"

Appearing with Carlin will be two rock groups, the Joy of Cooking and Sons of Champlin. The show will be at the Civic Auditorium Music Hall with tickets costing $2.50 at the door.

HOMECOMING activities for the Lincoln campus will be a week later on Friday, Oct. 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Coliseum. Featuring singer-songwriter Jimmy Webb and heavy, tough bluesoriented Crow, tickets will sell for $3 in advance and for $3.50 at the door.

Webb has penned such songs as "Up, Up and Away," "By the Time I Get to Phoenix," "Wichita Lineman" and "MacArthur Park," and has recorded an album--Words and Music.

Their first hit, "Evil Woman," is now disowned by Crow. "Don't listen to our first album. It's terrible. We're into something much better now," says Dick Wiegand, Crow's lead guitarist, referring to their second album, Crow by Crow.

The University of Nebraska Howell Memorial Theatre will be opening their season this year with The Balcony by Jean Genet and directed by Dr. William Morgan on Oct. 29 and running through Nov. 6 (except on Sunday).

THE PLAY TAKES place in a brothel, where diverse and unusual clients--struggling with their inability to control their destinies--substitute images and illusions for the elusive realities of the modern world.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. with tickets costing $2 for general admission and $1.50 for students on Monday through Thursdays, and $2.50 for general admission and $2 for students on Fridays and Saturdays. Tickets for the The Balcony will go on sale on Monday, Oct. 11, at the theatre box office.

The rest of the season for Howell theatre will be Child's Play by Robert Marasco and directed by Dr. Hal Floyd, performing March 10 through March 18, and The Tempest by William Shakespeare and directed by Dr. William Morgan, performing May 5 through May 18.

IN ADDITION Howell Theatre will sponsor an enchanting fantasy for the entire family, A Touch of Magic, written and directed by NU Graduate student, Royal Eckert, for the Holiday Season--running Dec. 15 through Dec. 18.

Howell Theatre uses NU students as actors and technicians for their plays and functions primarily for the University population. It would be nice if said population would realize this, and patronize "their" theatre more.

FANNY is no longer appearing on Friday, Oct. 8, INSTEAD the concert has been changed to Saturday, Oct. 9. Otherwise, all the other facts are still the same: Nebraska Union--8:30 p.m.--$1 a person--sponsored by Union Concerts Committee. Go to it!

IF YOU WISH YOU KNEW HOW TO SELECT SPEAKERS...

THIS CAN TELL YOU.

This is the remarkable Bose 1001 Computer. It's designed to aid you in selecting the perfect speakers for your stereo system. In just 8 minutes, without any technical background, you'll understand how things like direct sound, reflected sound, and equalization can influence music reproduction in your home. The 1001 computer separates these basic components of sound, and lets you experience them separately. After the demonstration, you'll be better prepared to know what to listen for in your search for the right speaker.

Mike Gundolfi, Staff Marketing Engineer for Bose Corporation, will be at Electronics Unlimited with the 1001 Computer during the Bose Speaker Clinic.
