

daily nebraskan sports

Pain

by Gary Seacrest

The agony of defeat. Nebraska guard Al Nissen laid prostrate on the floor of Kansas' Allen Field House in utter disbelief. He watched as Jayhawk fans lifted Kansas reserve Fred Bosilevac to their shoulders for a victory ride.

Kansas had just beaten Nebraska in the final two seconds of overtime when Bosilevac stole an inbounds pass from Husker forward Mike Peterson and dribbled in for the winning lay-up. The loss, Nebraska's tenth straight at Lawrence, enabled Kansas to grab a share of the Big Eight lead with the Huskers. Both teams now have 4-1 conference records.

"This was the toughest loss that I've had since I've been here," Nebraska Coach Joe Cipriano said Sunday of the Kansas game.

But he said that Saturday's heart-breaking loss did not seriously hurt the Huskers' chances of winning the Big Eight title. "If you win at home and split on the road, you'll be in the thick of it. So we're not out of it yet."

Until the last three minutes in regulation of the Kansas game, the Huskers played about as well as they could, according to Cipriano. He was especially pleased with the play of Nissen, who scored 16 points and provided invaluable leadership during the game.

Nebraska (playing with icy nerves before 1,000 screaming, feet-stomping Kansas fans) led 55-51 with 3:43 left in regulation play. However, the Jayhawks, with the aid of a Husker turnover, scored two quick baskets to tie the score with 1:59 to go. Nebraska elected to run down the clock for a final shot, but Peterson's jump shot from the foul line with five seconds left was long.

Kansas controlled the tip to start the overtime and immediately began to run the clock out. After a missed free throw by Kansas' Aubrey Nash with 3:12 left in the overtime, the Huskers got the rebound and began stalling for a final shot. However, Nebraska was forced into a jump ball with just eight seconds left when Nissen took too much time on his ball-controlling dribbling.

The veteran NU guard was matched with Nash who controlled the tip to teammate Randy Canfield. The KU center scored a quick basket, but was called for travelling.

The Cornhuskers had the ball out-of-bounds with two seconds remaining, but lightening then struck in the form of Bosilevac.

Can Nebraska come back against Kansas State Tuesday night at the Coliseum?

"The seniors really took the loss tough," Cipriano noted. "But they'll bounce back."

Kansas State enters the 7:35 p.m. game with a 3-1 conference record after beating Oklahoma 70-58 at Manhattan Saturday night.

"They (Kansas State) have the tallest team in the league," Cipriano said. "They have been playing a lot of sophomores, which should help us. They have also been hot and cold; if their guards are hot then they'll be hard to stop."

Horace Levy in the 60, Doug Gregory in the 300, Leighton Priestley in the 440, Jeff Wisemiller in the 880, Dan Speck in the 1,000-yard run, Jim Hawkins in the mile and Bob Unger in the two-mile.

Nebraska wrestlers Bob Orta, Ralph Manning and Joe George were triple winners Friday to lead the Huskers to dual meet wins over Missouri, Kansas State and Minnesota in a quadrangular meet Friday at the Coliseum.

Former Lincoln High swimmers Spencer Luedke and Tom Heuke turned in record-breaking freestyle efforts for the Coliseum pool Friday night to highlight Nebraska's 74-39 win over Southwest Minnesota State College.

However, the Husker swimmers won only two events Saturday as they lost to Iowa State 70-42 at Ames.

kent seacrest sports

Who has the hottest men's intramural basketball team this year at the University? That question can't be answered with certainty until the conclusion of the Men's Intramural Basketball Tournament next month. But until the championship team is decided, the Daily Nebraskan will be rating the top five teams among the fraternities, dorms and independents throughout the rest of the season and the tournament.

Here are this week's top "A" Intramural teams:

Fraternity	Dorms
1. Alpha Tau Omega (3-0)	1. Gooding (5-0)
2. Alpha Gamma Rho (4-0)	2. Schramm X (4-0)
3. Sigma Alpha Epsilon (3-0)	3. Abel VIII (3-0)
4. Pioneers (3-0)	4. Pike (3-0)
5. Sigma Alpha Mu (3-0)	5. Patton (3-0)
	Independents
	1. Kerngers (5-0)
	2. Roosters (5-0)
	3. Aurgi (5-0)
	4. Old Skihootees (5-0)
	5. Wheaties (5-0)

Open swimming in the Abel-Sandoz Pool will now be provided by the Recreation and Intramural Department (R and I) for all students, faculty and staff members. The times for these swims will be from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week. The cost will be 25 cents per swim or $1 per month or $4 per semester. Showers and lockers will be available for both men and women.

R and I will be sponsoring co-rec volleyball (three men and three women) for undergraduate students. Entries are due no later than Feb. 2 at the R and I office. There will also be a co-rec volleyball tournament which will be open to faculty, graduate students and employees. Entry deadline for this tournament is Feb. 8.

For all you women basketball players, Women's Intramural Basketball entries are due no later than Feb. 2.

sports shorts

Nebraska won all the running events except the hurdles to defeat Indiana, Big Ten outdoor champions for the last two years, 80-60 at Bloomington Saturday.

The Huskers, in capturing their dual opener, got winning efforts in the track events from

Due to restrictions on class size and integration with the University Independent study system, NFU must hold registration for all classes. You must register in order to receive first consideration for a class.

Registration will be held:

Monday, January 31
Nebraska Union	10:00-2:00
Cather-pound-WRH Cafeteria	5:00-6:30
Tuesday, February 1
Nebraska Union	10:00-2:00
Harper Schramm-Smith	5:00-6:30
Wednesday, February 2
East campus union	10:00-2:00
Abel-Sandoz cafeteria	5:00-6:30
Thursday, February 3
East campus union	10:00-2:00
Selleck Quadrangle cafeteria	5:00-6:30

People may also register for classes by calling NFU at 472-2564. NFU will be organizing some group independent study courses this semester. Those classes to be offered for credit will be indicated in the course listing and will be open on a P/F basis only. Registration for independent study will occur at the first meeting of the class.

NEW N.F.U. COURSES:

Comic Books a free form study group to meet six to eight weeks to discuss: origins of the comic book, the comic books as an art form, and various other aspects of comics Leader: Anne Collett Meeting: Tuesday, Feb. 8 Where: Harper, 1150 N. 14th St.	Philosophy of Free School Leader: Steve Lewis Meeting: Thursday, January 27 Tues. and Thurs. thereafter Where: Nebraska Union When: 12:30
---	---

All-Stars, Nixon invite Big Red

The nation's number one football fan will honor representatives of the nation's number one college football team Tuesday.

President Nixon has invited Coach Bob Devaney, President D.B. Varner and seven Nebraska football players to the White House Tuesday, Sen. Carl Curtis announced Saturday.

The players invited to attend are co-captains Jerry Tagge and Jim Anderson and five players who received national honors—Johnny Rodgers, Rich Glover, Willie Harper, Larry Jacobson and Jeff Kinney.

Devaney received another honor Saturday when he was named to coach the College All-Stars against the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys in the annual Chicago Tribune-sponsored game which will be held July 28 at the Windy City's Soldier Field.

The Nebraska coach is only the second college coach in two decades to be handed the coaching assignment for the All-Stars. Devaney will not have an easy task since the All-Stars haven't beaten the pro champions since 1963 when the Green Bay Packers were defeated 20-17.

"This is a tremendous honor," Devaney said of his appointment. "We will certainly look forward to playing the Dallas Cowboys and we realize what a challenge the All-Stars will face—but we'll approach the game with the idea of winning it."

Karate

KEI-SHIN-KAN
JAPANESE STYLE

MEMBER:
United States Karate Ass'n
All Japan Karate Ass'n

★ 15 INTRODUCTORY MEMBERSHIPS 1/3 DISCOUNT

KARATE ACADEMY OF LINCOLN

BLACK BELT INSTRUCTOR
PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS
FAMILY and ORGANIZATION GROUP RATES AVAILABLE

19 & O ACROSS FROM KING'S FOOD HOST
TRAINER OF THREE U. S. KARATE ASS'N NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

CALL 475-7586

HOURS	MEN	AGES
11:00 A.M. TO 10:00 P.M.	WOMEN CHILDREN	8 TO 68