

Three Dog Night — again

Review by Jim Gray

For the second time in two years Three Dog Night packed 'em in at Pershing Auditorium Friday night, bringing the sellout crowd to its feet for multiple standing ovations.

Significantly, Three Dog Night is the No. 1 group in the United States, by volume of record sales and concert attendance. Also significant is the fact the group seems to give the audience what it wants. The same nine musicians that played in Lincoln one year ago once again presented a polished, professional performance.

In fact, the same performance it gave one year ago. Most of the songs were the same songs, in the same arrangements, that were included in last year's performance. Agreed, much of the popular music audience demands that superstar recording groups play their major "hit" singles. Even so, some experimentation and alteration in arrangement could be expected, if nothing else, to reflect the group's creativity. Such was not the case with Three Dog Night.

The group's performance was so consistent and unimaginative that, without any stretch of the imagination, if the audience had closed its eyes it would have sworn it was listening to Golden Biscuits. Even the group's novelty songs came across like instant replays last year's concert. The few new songs performed by the group were vaguely disappointing.

Individually and collectively, Three Dog Night is a group of talented musicians. The three lead singers, Danny Hutton, Chuck Negron and Cory Wells are the best harmony combination in the business as well as smashing individual vocalists. Drummer Floyd Sneed is still the most interesting skin-pounder around.

But it is a pity the group has to play for mass-public-teenybop consumption. In doing so, the group has sacrificed its creativity. That is a tragic loss.

Now that you can fly to Europe for peanuts, here's how little you shell out to get around:

$130 for Two Months of unlimited rail travel in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.

You shell out $130, and get a Student-Railpass. All you need is the bread and something to show you're a bona fide student between 14 and 25.

Our Student-Railpass gives you all that unlimited rail travel on the 100,000 mile railroad networks of those 13 countries. For two foot-loose months. So with low air fares and Student-Railpass you've got Europe made.

Our Student-Railpass gets you Second Class travel on our trains. You'll find that there's very little second class about Second Class. Besides being comfortable, clean, fast, and absurdly punctual, the European trains have some other advantages for you. They take you from city center to city center, so you don't have to hassle airports. And the stations are helpful homes away from home, with Pictograms that give you information in the universal language of signs, and dining rooms, bookstores and other helpful facilities.

Now, here's the catch. You can't get your Student-Railpass or the regular First Class Eurailpass in Europe—you have to get them before you leave the country. So see your Travel Agent soon. Meanwhile, send in the coupon for a free folder, complete with railroad map.

STUDENT-RAILPASS The way to see Europe without feeling like a tourist.

Eurailpass is valid in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.

Eurailpass, Box 90, Lindenhurst, New York 11757.
