

Jura wins AP, NCAA honors

Nebraska, playing for only individual records and pride, closes its basketball season Saturday night against Big Eight champion Kansas State at Manhattan.

Husker center Chuck Jura, who Thursday was named to the Associated Press All-Big Eight team and the NCAA Fifth District All-Star team, closes in on five Nebraska records in his final game of his Nebraska career.

The 6-10 center, the Huskers' third-ranking all-time scorer with 1,235 points, needs 31 to tie Stuart Lantz for second place and 58 to tie Tom Baack for the scoring lead. Jura's 531 points this season is 25 short of Marvin Stewart's one-season record.

Jura, with 212 field goals this season, needs just four to overtake Stewart for the single season mark. In addition Jura is currently shooting field goals at a .561 mark, compared to Tom Russell's record of .560 set during the 1961-62 campaign, and owns a .553 career field goal average which tops Lantz's previous record of .485.

The Nebraska center has a 21.2 scoring average and leads the Big Eight in rebounding with 295. Jura grabbed 12 rebounds against Iowa State Monday night to break the Nebraska single season rebound record set by Leroy Chalk last year.

While Jura aims for records, Nebraska, currently 7-6 and in fourth-place in the Big Eight, seeks to reverse a three-game losing streak in the 7:35 p.m. Saturday game and hand the Wildcats their third conference setback this season. The last Kansas State loss was to the Huskers Feb. 1.

"We played well last year (losing 70-69) and we usually seem to play them well there," Nebraska Coach Joe Cipriano said. "I would think our losing streak would be enough of an incentive for us to play well. Sure they're closing at home knowing they're champions, but I hope we're ready to play."

The Big Eight basketball season closes Saturday with the Nebraska-Kansas State game and the Oklahoma-Missouri game at Columbia. However, Kansas State will be going to the NCAA Midwest Regional tournament at Iowa State and Missouri is bound for the National Invitational Tournament in New York City.

The All-Big Eight team named by the AP Thursday included the leading scorer and rebounder on five different teams. Besides Jura, the AP team included: Bud Stallworth of Kansas, Bobby Jack of Oklahoma, David Hall of Kansas State and John Brown of Missouri. Nebraska guard Al Nissen was given an honorable mention.

The Fifth District All-Star team named by the NCAA included the four top scorers in the Big Eight and Louisville's Jim Price. The Big Eight players named to the team are Jura, Stallworth, Brown and Jim Creighton of Colorado.

All-Big Eight selection Chuck Jura... aims for individual records against Kansas State Saturday night.

High school tournament moves to second round

The 62nd annual state high school tournament moves into its second day Friday after Thursday's first-round action saw the only defending champion win, the only undefeated team lose and a new individual scoring record set.

Lincoln East, the only defending champion in the tournament, beat Omaha Northwest 87-63 to move into the Class A semi-finals. East will meet Omaha Rummel, a 51-31 winner over Creighton Prep, at noon Friday at the Coliseum. North Platt, a 62-57 winner over Papillion, and Columbus, an 80-64 victor over Omaha Burke, will meet in the Class A semi-final game, beginning at 7 p.m. at the Coliseum.

Randolph, the only undefeated team at the start of tournament play, lost 76-62 to a taller Waverly team in Class B action. Waverly meets Omaha Cathedral at noon Friday at Pershing Auditorium. Crete, which surprised Cozad 76-60, meets Columbus Lakeview, a 48-46 upset winner over Sidney, in the other Class B semi-final game beginning at 7 p.m. at Pershing.

Kim Veerhusen set a new tournament single game scoring record when he pumped in 52 points to lead his Adams team to a 73-69 upset win over Mead in Class D play. The old scoring record was a 50-point effort by Geneva's Bob Gratopp in 1965.

The 1972 Midwestern Olympic Weightlifting Championships, the largest weightlifting meet ever held for Lincoln, will be at the UNL Men's P.E. building Saturday.

Weightlifting gets away at 10 a.m. for the lighter weight divisions and at 10 p.m. for the heavier weight divisions. Following the regional weightlifting, the Midwestern Physique Contest will be held.

Midwestern district of our Athletic Union includes all of Nebraska and western Iowa. The weightlifting team, is expected to draw four men who have a chance to total over 900 pounds in the three separate events - military press, snatch, and clean and jerk.

Joe Dean, former LSU basketball standout, will be the featured speaker at the annual Nebraska basketball awards banquet Sunday.

The Husker banquet, sponsored by Lincoln Elks Lodge No. 80, will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Elks Club.

Dean was a three-time All-Southeastern Conference selection and a member of the U.S. Olympic basketball team.

The Recreation and Intramurals department is sponsoring a knot-typing course. Interested students should contact the department for further information.
