

DON'T VOTE!

ASUN elections are being held today.
But don't vote—
UNLESS you want student government
to become a powerful and effective voice for your concerns. It hasn't been in the past for the simple reason that not enough people gave a damn.
But if ASUN is to become powerful now,
you have to give a damn. Because it'll take a mandate from the whole
student body.
Think about it.
If you're satisfied being represented
by a feeble student government,
don't vote.
If you want change, the polls are open.
