

Yippeeti-yi-yo

Youngun's and old hands alike turned out for the calf ropin' and bulldoggin' at the annual East Campus Western Days Rodeo last week. The event drew over 200 contestants from 21 schools and eight states. The National College of Business team from Rapid City, S.D., won the most titles, while Husker cowpokes placed highly in bull and bronk riding.

Photos by Don Tremain