

the Black Shirts' effort against UCLA.

"We felt the defense had to play outstanding the first few games because we knew the offense might have problems getting started," Kiffin said. "We weren't able to stop UCLA when we had to."

Texas A & M's Wishbone was impressive in the season opener against Wichita State. The Aggies scored a 36-13 win.

Junior Mark Green, who rushed for more than 160 yards last week, leads the Aggie offense from his left halfback slot.

Freshman Earnest Bean, the most sought-after running back in Texas last year, is at right halfback.

"In a way this season is more exciting than last year's."

The Wishbone offense is a natural for senior quarterback Lex James. James, who weighs 192, is a strong runner and isn't afraid to carry the football.

Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney said there would be no drastic changes for Saturday's game at Memorial Stadium.

"The quickest way to lose the second one is to start throwing in a bunch of new stuff," Devaney said. "We're going to stick with the same guys."

But can a football dynasty die one week and rebound seven days later?

"I'm sure we can," Kiffin said. "That loss brought our team closer together. Now they know what they have to do."
