KRIWET

Ferdinand Kriwet. A German born experimental writer with an extraordinary insight into America. This vision is reflected in Kriwet's entire series on America, including films, literature, and accoustical collages.

Kriwet's works present a rare opportunity for Americans to experience a unique perception of our country in literary and cinematic forms from another culture.

For you, Kriwet's series on America will include a personal presentation by the artist himself. Don't miss the opportunity to experience Kriwet's view of America, and find out why he views it the way he does.
