Applications will be accepted until Nov. 1 for junior lectureships in American studies in France, Italy and Spain for the academic year 1973-74. Applicants should be advanced graduate students or those recently completing their Ph.D. Additional information can be obtained from the Committee on International Exchange of Persons, 2101 Constitution Ave., Washington, D.C. 20418.

The Navy's Officer Information Team will be visiting UNL on Nov. 1-2 to talk with prospective graduates about jobs available in the Navy. Representatives will be in 225 Nebraska Union from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Interviews for the E-Week board will be held Tuesday from 7-10 p.m. in W192 and W196 Nebraska Hall.

Two appointments will be made to the ASUN curriculum committee and another to the ALIN Senate in the Graduate and Professional College. Applications are available in the ASUN office, 334 Union.

The UNL summer school administration is considering a three-week pre-session that would start immediately after the end of second semester and would run through June 8. Students would be able to enroll for a maximum of three credit hours during that session.

Charley Thone

Your

MAN AT WORK In Washington.

These are some of the things Charley Thone has done in his first two years in Washington.

■ Charley voted against censoring
CBS for "The Selling of the Pentagon" program.

■ Charley introduced a bill to forbid courts to require that newsmen reveal their sources.

■ Charley is seeking to end income tax discrimination against single persons.

■ Charley helped obtain federal help for Lincoln's new busses and construction of the new Lincoln federal building.

Charley Thone is the kind of Congressman Nebraskans need for good representation. Charley Thone is your man at work in Washington.

Re-elect

CHARLEY THONE

your representative to Congress from Nebraska's First District.

Paid for by Thone for Congress Committee. Lee Herman, Wayne, Chairman; Virginia Laflih, Crab Orchard, Co-Chairman; Ted Sick, Lincoln, Treasurer.
