

East Union program executives appointed

The Nebraska Union Board appointed next year's members to the East Union Program Council (EUPC) executive committee Wednesday. Five students were chosen for EUPC for the coming year.

Appointed were Fred Bruning, Jordan Kaminski, Bonny Stute, Pat Pool and Annetta Stattwald. The executive committee serves as an overseer to all programming at the East Union.

In other business, the board approved a motion moving the Union staff offices into 200 Union and moving the coordinator of student activities into the old Union staff offices.

Room 200 has been occupied by the Alumni Association and University of Nebraska Foundation. Those organizations are moving to the new systems building on East Campus after Thanksgiving.

The board also approved use of the lounge as a "program area" on Nov. 30, allowing a string quartet to give a concert there that day.

A committee was set up to review the Union Governing Code with board member Ray Metoyer as chairman.
