Everything multiplied in '3'

Good Reading: Can O' Beans 3 by Greg Scott, Shelley Becker, Dave Brink, Bart Becker, Tex Richters and Steamboat. Locally grown.

Wouldn't you know that sooner or later I'd get around to writing a favorable review of something I was involved in. This is it, a plug to get you to buy the new comic.

It's better than the first two, I think, because it has a lot more stuff in it. A couple new artists help to broaden the possibilities both by their artwork and by the thoughts they're conveying.

And because No. 3 has three times the pages of the early duo, the possibilities for a variety of forms of messages multiplied.

It's also very funny. I've been looking at some of the material for several months and I still think it's funny. So I think you should buy it and enjoy it, too.

Available at Dirt Cheap and the ASUN Record Store in the Union.

Quick Concert notes, within; driving or hitching distance:

Dec. 5: Tom Rush, Boulder through the 10th; Dec. 7: Mance Lipscomb, Davenport, Iowa; Dec. 8: Byrds, Chicago; Judy Collins, Chicago; Mance Lipscomb, Newton, Iowa; Muddy Waters, LeMars, Iowa; West Bruce & Laing, Wichita; Dec. 9: West, Bruce & Laing, Lincoln at Pershing; Earl Scruggs, Iowa City; Byrds, Iowa City; Dec. 10: James Gang, Wichita; Doctor John, Minneapolis; West, Bruce & Laing, Denver.

The first concert of the Performing Arts Series is slated for Friday night at Kimball Recital Hall. Cellist Leonard Rose will perform.

Individual concert tickets are $2.50 for students and $4 for nonstudents. Series tickets (four concerts) are $8 for students and 12 for nonstudents.

Brecht's play The Caucasian Chalk Circle opens Friday night at Howell Theatre. It will play Friday and Saturday and next Monday through Saturday.

The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail will be presented Thursday through Saturday at Wesleyan's Miller Theatre.

The Weekend Film is a weird one—Brewster McCloud.

Friday night the Star-Spangled Wranglers are playing for a dance in the Union Ballroom. If you like country music you'll like this band.

And if you like heavy, loud music the West, Bruce & Laing concert Saturday at Pershing will suit you fine. Also on hand Saturday will be Edgar Winter.
