

Huskers, Bluejays split baseball double header

Creighton pitcher Dan McCabe limited UNL to only four hits as the Bluejays won the second game of a doubleheader, 7-1, Tuesday at the UNL baseball diamond.

UNL took the first game 6-1 with the pitching of Ryan Kurosaki and Dave Buehrer.

McCabe, with a 5-1 record, struck out seven Huskers and allowed only one extra base hit, a first inning double by UNL shortstop Bryant Akisada.

Ron Thornam and Steve Naval belted homeruns to lead the Creighton assault on losing Husker pitcher Bob Munson.

In the first game UNL showed some offensive muscle of its own as the Huskers unleashed an 11-hit attack.

Dick Anderson, with three hits, and Akisada, with two, paced the Husker hitters.

Buehrer, a freshman from Downers Grove, Ill., got the win, his fourth of the season without a loss.

UNL baseball coach Tony Sharpe didn't feel that the Huskers were playing well after winning the first game.

"We weren't mentally ready to play," Sharpe said. "We got a little lackadaisical and careless."

Creighton's record now stands at 23-10. The Huskers are 10-8-1.

The Huskers return to league action this weekend when they host Kansas State for a three-game series.

According to Sharpe, the Kansas State series is a crucial one for the Huskers.

The Wildcats are 5-6 and in fourth place in the Big Eight while UNL is 4-5 and in fifth place.

"Kansas State has been coming along real strong," Sharpe said. "They've got a very fine pitching staff."

Netters to host CU, ISU

The tennis team will host a triangular meet with Colorado and Iowa State starting this Friday at the Woods tennis courts.

Coach Jim Porter said it will be an uphill battle for UNL, since Colorado finished second in the Big Eight last year. The CU team has been conference runner-up for the past two years and is expected to be one of the top teams again this year.

Iowa St. and Nebraska have last place in the Big Eight during the last two years.

Jim Crew will be Nebraska's no. 1 man in the singles with Dave Lux, Sig Garnett and Billy Roberts rounding out the top four.

During the triangular, Iowa State plays Colorado Friday afternoon, and Nebraska plays Colorado at 9 a.m. Saturday and Iowa St. at 1 p.m.

Penn wrestlers to attend UNL

UNL wrestling coach Orval Borqialli announced Monday that two Pennsylvania high school athletes have signed national letters of intent to attend Nebraska.

The two are Denny Zuk of Carnegie and Michael Vranich of Midland.

Borqialli said Zuk had a 106-8 career record including a win over the Illinois state champion.
