

Rich Glover (79) . . . adds the Tom Novak Trophy to his list of honors.

Glover to be honored

Nebraska's athletic department announced Wednesday that Cornhusker all-American Rich Glover will receive the Tom Novak Trophy at halftime of the intrateam game at Memorial Stadium Saturday.

The award is presented annually by J. Gordon Roberts and the Roberts Dairy Co., to the Husker senior "who best exemplifies courage and determination despite all odds in the manner of Nebraska all-American center Tom Novak."

Novak was an all-American center for the Cornhuskers in 1949.

The Novak Trophy will be another on a list of awards Glover has received during his long career at Nebraska.

Glover already has won the Outland Trophy from the Football Writers Association of America and the Lombardi Trophy. Both trophies are awarded to the outstanding college football lineman in the nation.

Glover, who was drafted by the New York Giants professional football team, led the Cornhuskers in tackles last season. He had 100 during 11 regular season games. During his career, Glover threw ball carriers for 27 losses, totalling 131 yards.

Former Nebraska coach Bob Devaney spoke highly of Glover.

"Rich Glover is the greatest defensive lineman I've ever seen," Devaney said. "We took him (Glover) for granted some times because he never had a bad game. He always played from great to super and forced other teams to do things they wouldn't ordinarily do."

A physical education major in Teachers College, Glover spent last summer working in the mayor's youth program in Jersey City, N.J.

Golfers win Drake tourney

Fresh from winning last week's Drake Relays Invitational Golf Tournament, UNL's golf team will enter the Northern Intercollegiate at Bloomington, Ind., Saturday and Sunday.

The Northern Intercollegiate will include 15 teams, all the Big Ten schools except Northwestern; plus Ball State, Notre Dame, Miami (Ohio), Miami (Fla), Ohio University and Nebraska.

Husker coach Larry Romjue said the Drake win was the first major tournament win for Nebraska in some time.

"We won the Big Six in 1938, but outside of that, I can't remember Nebraska winning any other major tournaments," Romjue said. "We did win the Fall Big Eight meet in 1971, but that didn't include Oklahoma State and Colorado. They had Arkansas and Colorado State instead, so Drake was the biggest win we've had by far."

In the Drake meet, Nebraska recovered from a six-stroke deficit after the first round to win by three-strokes over Wichita State.

Rick Schultz was the top individual golfer for the Huskers. He tied for third place. Schultz shot an opening round 81 and a final round 76.

Romjue said he plans to take Schultz, Dan Bahensky, Steve King, Bob Meyer, Larry Schmidt and Gary Teel to Bloomington.

"King, Schultz and Bahensky have been carrying the team," Romjue said. "If we get help from our other players, we're usually in pretty good shape. But we have to depend on those three (King, Schultz and Bahensky) all the time."

Romjue said that the Northern Intercollegiate is one of the best and most important tournaments the Huskers will play this season.

"The Northern Intercollegiate is a pretty big tournament," he said. "The winner of it usually gets an invitation to the NCAA tournament if he doesn't win his conference title—it's that good of a tournament."

This weekend's tournament will be the last for the Husker golfers before the Big Eight meet at Manhattan, Kans., May 18 and 19.

Orange Blossom

Symbol of a Dream

The pattern of this ring dates to the Middle Ages where it was known as "the ceremonial ring."

The symbols used then are as appropriate today as they were in the year 1320.

Joined Hearts: Two mortal souls in love.
Clasped Hands: Togetherness for a lifetime.
Scriptures: Wisdom of the ages for guidance.
Horn of Plenty: Fulfillment and happiness.
Orange Blossoms: Symbols of the dream you share.
Reminiscence: A ring as eternal as time.
As young as your dream.

Loudspeaker choice at Stereo Studio belongs to the customer, not a high-powered Salesman. That is why we installed an equalized unique speaker comparator at our downtown store. This device plays all speakers at the same volume level — Equal volume being the basis for a fair test.

What is best for you might not be the loudest speaker, although any store could rig it that way — and to their advantage not yours. We give your ears a fighting chance. You tell us.
