Full film schedule planned for Sheldon theatre in fall

The Sheldon Art Museum theatre will be busy this fall.

Dan Ladely, who was hired to manage the museum theatre, has lined up movies for six nights on some weeks this fall and he says students, faculty and staff can use the theatre at other times.

Ladely said a series of ten evenings of Charlie Chaplin movies will be shown on Friday and Saturday nights at 7 and 9 p.m. Admission will be $1.25 for students, $1.50 for non-students. Season tickets will be available to students for $10 and to non-students for $12.50.

The series will start with The Kid and Idle Class on Sept. 7 and 8. Season tickets will be available at Sheldon and probably the Union, Ladely said. Tickets also will be sold at the door.

Seven Lively Arts

On Sunday at 3 p.m. this fall Sheldon will show the Seven Lively Arts Series. The series is co-sponsored by the UNL Instructional Media Center, which owns a copy of the series. The series can be checked out from the media center.

Also at Sheldon this fall will be William Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Henry V". The 1935 version of "A Midsummer Night's Dream", starring James Cagney, Olivia de Havilland, Dick Powell, Mickey Rooney and Joe E. Brown, will be shown Oct. 9.

"Henry V", made in 1944, will be shown Nov. 6. It stars Laurence Olivier, Robert Newoon, Leslie Banks, Renee Asherson and Esmond Knight.

Both films will be shown at 3, 7 and 9 p.m. and a $1 admission will be charged.

New to UNL

Film Maker's Showcase, new to the UNL, will feature Richard Meyers on Sept. 11, 12 and 13. Meyers, who teaches at Kent State University, will be on campus speaking during the day and showing his films in the evening.

His films include The Path, First Time Here, Coronation, Akran, Wood Assemblage, Hiram Upward Bound and Everybody Knows Fay Wray.

Animated film maker Suzan Pitt Kraning also will be on campus sometime this year for another Film Maker's Showcase.

She has produced Whitney Commercial, Crocus, Jefferson Circus Songs, A City Trip, Cels and Bowl, Theatre, Garden, Marble Game.

The Foreign Film Series will be shown at Sheldon for the first time. The Series will be on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at 7 and 9 p.m. every other week.

Films alternate

The foreign films will alternate with the Union Special Film Series which will be shown on Wednesdays.

"We hope the Lincoln audience will pick up on movies, these kinds of choices have not been available in the past," he said.
