

How to cope with School

GOING BACK TO

Pick up any bad habits this summer? Oversleeping a bit? Short memory? A little laziness perhaps? You could use a little assistance from TEAM. Here are some electronic marvels by Panasonic which will help you cope — and possibly prevail — this year.

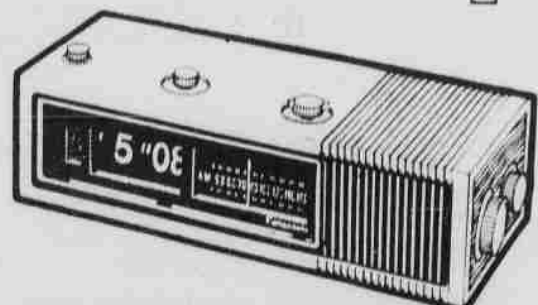

Keep up!

RQ-309 Portable Tape Recorder $39<sup>95</sup>

Bring along your music or record something significant with this lightweight portable cassette unit. It's got quick-action pushbutton controls, and a built-in condenser mike. Comes with batteries and AC cord.

Wake up!

RC-1282 AM Digital Clock Radio $34<sup>95</sup>

Gently but inexorably eases you into the school day. Illuminated digital clock face is easy to read even from semi-trance state. Has 60-minute sleep timer with automatic shutoff.

RQ-212S Portable Tape Recorder $69<sup>95</sup>

The perfect "morning after" tape recorder. Takes notes for you even if you fall asleep in class. A palm-sized unit with rechargeable batteries (not included). It's totally portable. Also operates off AC.

RC-6253 AM/FM Digital Clock Radio $49<sup>95</sup>

Does the same as above only in FM as well as AM. Also has Doze Button for an extra ten minutes of precious sleep.

RQ-432S Portable Cassette Recorder with Radio $69<sup>95</sup>

A media bonanza! Swings any way you want to: AC, DC, AM, FM or cassette. Even has a switch that turns the unit off if you should fall asleep while cramming. Also records off its own radio.
