Dear editor,

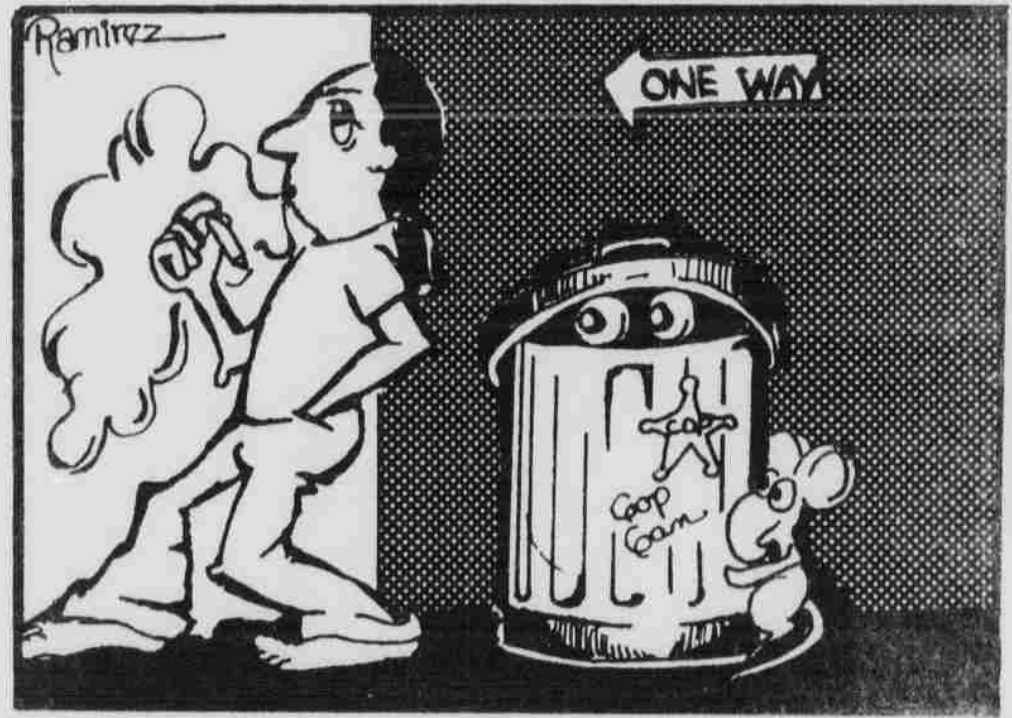

I am a student at UNL, live in a dormitory and like football. My leader, Ed Schwartzkopf, mentioned in the paper the permitting of alcohol in the dormitory would result in the students getting "tight." My question: what is the meaning of "tight?"

Martin Crowley

Dear editor,

The Chicago 7, Angela Davis, The Berrigan Brothers' kidnap plot, Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo. And now the Gainsville 8. If various state and the federal governments were to spend as much time and money trying to bust organized crime as they do trying to convict innocent citizens whose only "crime" seems to be dissent, then I'm sure it would no longer be a billion-dollar industry.
