Ten named as finalists for homecoming queen

Ten UNL women have been named as finalists for 1973 homecoming queen.

The queen will be selected by a student vote next Wednesday and will reign over homecoming festivities Oct. 20 when the Cornhuskers meet the Kansas Jayhawks in Memorial Stadium.

Patsy Woodside and John Russell are coordinating arrangements for selection of the homecoming queen on behalf of Tassels and Corn Cobs. The two groups are UNL's student pep organizations.

Homecoming queen finalists will be presented at the Extra Point Club luncheon next Monday in Brandeis cafeteria. Finalists also will be presented at special events on campus prior to the game and at the alumni reception at the Radisson Cornhusker Hotel following the game.

Finalists, all juniors, are: Carol Callahan, Lynelle Frankforter, Carolyn Grice, Sharon E. Johnson, Jinger Jorgensen, Nancy Lahm, Barbara Lien, Margit Royal, Jann Simpson and Teri Zabawa.
