

Program to voice student views on issues

By Dave Madsen

Nebraska's radio and TV waves soon may carry voices of UNL students expounding on campus-related issues.

According to Melinda Fowler, chairperson of the UNL Builders Projection Committee, a program is being developed in which public affairs programs will be presented in cooperation with radio and TV stations in the state.

Fowler said the programs will provide an outlet for students' opinions on campus issues.

"We (UNL) have strictly news programs now," she said. "There is no opportunity for students to voice opinions on issues for the general public."

Fowler explained that there will be two basic formats for the public affairs programs. The first will involve taping 30 or 60-second "bleepers" that could be used by stations at their convenience. She said the committee will make the tapes, which may concern campus issues and general student reactions to them.

The second format will involve more specific opinions on issues, Fowler said. Groups or individuals will make arrangements through her committee to go to radio or TV stations and tape interviews with station personnel.

Dave Uhrenholdt, cochairman of the Builders committee, said the committee now is working on a list of groups that will be interested in participating in the program.

"We need people with an opinion on campus issues," Uhrenholdt said. "The more controversial the subject, the better."

The committee is working with Donald Jacks in the UNL Public Relations Dept. on the program. According to Jacks, although he has not yet made any contacts with TV or radio stations about the program, an Omaha radio station has contacted him and said it is willing to participate in the program.

Jacks said he hasn't made any contacts yet because he is waiting for the committee to give him the list of possible groups.

According to Uhrenholdt, if a group or individual has opinions to express and are interested in participating in this program, they should contact the Builders office, Nebraska Union 342.

JAN JOSEPH IS A VERY PRETTY GIRL.

RIGHT.

(BOY, IS THAT EVER RIGHT.)

ADMIT IT, YOU PROBABLY THOUGH THERE WERE NOTHING BUT HAIRY-LEGGED OLD GUYS IN AIR FORCE ROTC.

WRONG.

JAN AND NINE OTHER PRETTY GIRLS ARE IN AIR FORCE ROTC.

Jan will be commissioned as an Air Force officer when she graduates. She will be a manager, receiving equal pay (more than $9,000 starting, $15,000 after four years) and equal responsibility with her male officer contemporaries, travel, and other benefits.

That's probably why Jan enrolled in Air Force ROTC, plus she can compete on an equal basis and break away from stereotyped jobs.

ANYWAY, JAN DID ENROLL IN AIR FORCE ROTC.

WE'RE GLAD.

WE WERE GETTING TIRED OF SEEING NOTHING BUT HAIRY-LEGGED OLD GUYS.

AIR FORCE ROTC IS WORTH CONSIDERING FOR PRETTY GIRLS AND HAIRY-LEGGED OLD GUYS.
