What ideologies and life styles will emerge from the present turmoil of Western culture?

Os Guinness gives a critique of the Establishment and the Counter Culture and proposes a Third Way—in THE DUST OF DEATH (1973, IVP pap. $4.95). Included are assessments of Marcuse and the New Left, Watts and Leary and the drug culture, the Occultists, the Jesus People and eastern religionists. A hook to be read by all who are serious about charting a new course for Western man—and by all who have grown weary of the task.
