

Price of chicken no cause to squawk

This week, we've decided to devote this space to one of the worlds least loved animals, the chicken. Little favorable is ever said of this fowl creature. Always being ready to stick up for the underbird, chicken is the cheapest meat at the supermarket.

There are four kinds of chicken available at the meat counter. Broilers-fryers the most common and popular are small, tender birds of 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 lbs. ready-to-cook weight, whole or in parts. Roasting chickens are the same birds, but weighing up to 5 lbs. Stewing chickens (sometimes labeled fowl) are mature, less tender, 2 1/2 to 5 lb. hens, with more fat. Capons are young neutered male chickens of 4 lbs. or more; they're exceptionally tender, with a large amount of white meat.

There is no real trick to frying chicken. After cutting up or quartering a fryer hen, coat the pieces either with a flour mixture or dip into egg beaten with 2 teaspoons water or both. The flour mixture contains 1/4 cup flour, 1 tsp. paprika, 3/4 tsp. salt, and 1/8 tsp. pepper.

In a large skillet, place about 1/4 inch oil, shortening or butter and heat until a drop of water sizzles in the fat. Lightly brown the chicken, reduce the heat, and cover tightly. Cook for about 20 minutes, turning the pieces occasionally.

We could go on telling you how to roast, broil, boil, stew and barbeque chicken. But we have selected two recipes using cooked, canned, or leftover chicken.

Very Quick Creamed Chicken

- 1 tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup sliced celery
- 1 can condensed cream of chicken soup, undiluted
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 cups cooked or canned chicken

Saute green pepper and celery in butter until tender. Stir in soup, milk; heat slowly, stirring constantly. Add chicken and cook 10 minutes. Pour over toast or biscuits. Serves four to six.

Chicken Burgers with Cranberry Sauce

- 1 cup cooked or canned chicken
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 1 cup fresh bread crumbs
- 1 tbsp. minced onion
- butter or margarine
- 1/2 can jellied or whole cranberry sauce

In bowl, lightly toss together chicken, eggs, bread crumbs, onion, until just mixed. Shape into four patties. Saute in butter until golden brown on both sides. With fork, stir up cranberry sauce and serve over patties.

CLAP cites danger, proposes 2 ASUNs

"Because our intelligence agents have reported that we (the candidates) are in danger," the first contenders for the ASUN executive seats have decided to show themselves, they say.

In two letters to the Daily Nebraskan the Celibacy, Lysterine, and Anti-permissiveness (CLAP) party members made their platform public because "scattered skirmishes have been reported between Van der Waal's forces and Gliederfussler, with heavy casualties inflicted on both sides," they state.

The candidates state that they wish to be known under the names of Eugenio Patrizio, alias Pat Olson, alias General Ottimo della Repubblica per Sciocchi e Pazzi, or high and Excellent General of the Republic for Fools and Crazies; Gregolopolus, alias Greg Sutton, alias Colonel-Engineer for Public Purity and Social Disinfection; and Von Poppentrop; alias Jeff Popp, alias Supreme Coordinator for Counter-Insurgency and Dental Health Care.

The CLAP party proposes to form two student government organizations. One is to be known as ASUN, "but to be called HOME ROOM - STUDENT COUNCIL" with 10,000 seats.

The second group, to be known as ASUN' (ASUN prime), is proposed to be "a new student organization, in order to maintain the university's accreditation".

The number of senators is to be decreased to "13 or 13 1/2."

The government is to follow the UNL Student Government Constitution of 1954, CLAP states. They also propose to ban free pin ball games, to find halftracks for Campus Security and to remove the PACE box on the tuition statement in order to raise money for Homecoming displays.
