Woman appointed as regent

Gov. J. James Exon announced Saturday the appointment of Camille Elliot, 79, of Scottsbluff to the Board of Regents.

Believed to be the first woman named to the board, Elliot is the widow of the late John G. Elliot, the former regent who served the Sixth District.

He died Wednesday in an Omaha hospital.

Nine months remained on his term. A new regent will be elected to serve the district in the November election.

We have the lenses that change as quickly as the weather.

Our SENSENOR lenses get darker when the sun's out, lighter when it's not. Automatically.

No matter what time of day or what kind of weather.

Your glasses adjust themselves to the light—perfectly. Just like your eyes do.

And you can choose from over 200 frame styles.

So ask for the all-new SENSENOR lenses.
