

short stuff

An all you can eat pancake feed will be held Sunday from 5 to 9 p.m. in the Nebraska Union Ballroom. Proceeds from the event will go to All University Fund (AUF). Tickets are available from members of Delta Delta Delta sorority, Beta Theta Pi Fraternity or AUF members for $1.

UNL Young Democrats will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Nebraska Union. The meeting room will be posted.

A former Cornell University professor will speak Thursday on ECKANKAR—The Path of Total Awareness. Frederick Foss will lecture at the Cotner School of Religion, 1237 R St., Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The UNL Agronomy Club, in conjunction with the Nebraska Soybean Assoc., is sponsoring the first annual Miss Soya contest. The contestants entering must have a general interest in and knowledge of soybeans. The winner of the state contest will compete at Houston, Tex., in August for the national title. The Nebraska contest deadline is April 25. More information may be obtained from the Agronomy Dept., Keim Hall, on East Campus.

Olga Connolly, a flag bearer for the U.S. at the Munich Olympics in 1972, will conduct a workshop in Track and Field for Women July 1-3 and July 8-13. Kitty Kjeldsen, a well-known authority on gymnastics for women, will hold a workshop June 17-28. Cheryl Bridges, former world record holder of the Marathon for Women, will hold a workshop June 24-July 12. A workshop in Outdoor Education will be held June 10-28.

Broaden your horizons.
Expand your wardrobe.

From noon to midnight,
this Thursday and Friday only...

Midnight Madness SALE!

Sale prices on new clothes!

For guys...

suits, pants,
sportcoats, shirts,
knit shirts, shoes,
jackets, jeans

For girls...

dresses, knit tops,
pants, pant suits,
blouses, swimsuits,
jeans, shoes, jackets

Hitchin' Post & Wooden Nickel

both at 144 north 14th