ETV budget discussion set

A public meeting of the Nebraska Educational Television Commission is scheduled for Thursday, June 20. The meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Board Room of the Nebraska Educational Telecommunications Center, 1800 North 33rd Street, Lincoln.

Principal items on the agenda, according to Commission Secretary Jack McBride, are consideration of the 1974-75 operating budget and discussion of the national public television program cooperative. The report of the program cooperative will be given by Commissioner Philip Heckman, Doane College President, who serves on the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) board of governors, and by Ron Hull, Nebraska ETV Network who is responsible for program selection for the network.

In addition, Commissioner June Popken (Mrs. Don) Brady, will report on a regional public television meeting held June 13-14 in Chicago, which was called by the PBS board of governors.

Other items include reports on network programming; network operations, including the Ogallala time zone and the weather warning system; and a report of the Nebraskans for Public Television, Inc. annual meeting.

Theatre company performing Sunday

Company is a national touring company which has its home base in Wichita, Kansas. This company is funded by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Kansas Arts Commission, Garvey Foundation and private donations.

Fellowship awarded

Teresa Kay Hietbrink, who will receive her master's degree in music from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in July, has been named one of seven nationwide winners of a Kathryn Sisson Phillips Fellowship.

The fellowship is awarded by Alpha Lambda Delta scholastic honorary society for freshmen women.

Miss Hietbrink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Hietbrink of Adams, will use her $2,000 fellowship to study at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore, Md. She was selected as one of seven fellowship winners from among 206 applicants from 77 institutions.

The theme of the play concerns Thoreau's refusal to pay his taxes because they were going to support the Mexican-American War. It was Thoreau's contention that the war was unethical and illegal. Because of his refusal to pay his taxes Thoreau was sent to jail. The dramatic action of the play concerns flashbacks which illustrate what led Thoreau to make his decision. Action in the play also involves Thoreau's disagreement with poet Ralph Waldo Emerson. At the time, Emerson opposed Thoreau's stance. Through their disagreement the audience is shown both sides of the argument.
