

Governors featured

Governors from fifteen Mid-west states met in Minneapolis July 29-31 to discuss areas of mutual concern. They heard the comments of such guest speakers as aviator-author, Charles Lindbergh, New York Times columnist Harrison Salisbury, Federal Energy Administrator John Sawhill, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz, National Farmers Organization president Oren Lee Staley and Minnesota's two U.S. Senators, Walter Mondale and Hubert Humphrey.

Highlights of the conference will be aired on a special one-hour program, "The Mid-western Governors' Conference," Sunday, August 11 at 10 p.m. on the Nebraska ETV Network. Topics to be covered during the three day conference will include the world food crisis, the right-to-read program, issues of man, and a report on energy requirements and environmental protection for the Midwest and the nation.

Governor J. James Exon of Nebraska will be participating in the conference in addition to governors from Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The program is being produced by public television station KTOA of Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota in cooperation with the Central Educational Network (CEN). With headquarters in Chicago, CEN is a non-profit mutual association providing a live interconnected network and program exchange for 24 members who operate 42 TV stations capable of reaching an audience of over 35 million people.

3 military engineering scholarships awarded

Three Omaha Post-Society of American Military Engineers Scholarships of $150 have been presented to students in the College of Engineering and Technology at the University of Nebraska.

The recipients are:

Bernard J. Mewald, Jr., 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Merwald of Omaha (3411 Washington St.). He is majoring in electrical engineering.

Eugene A. Thies, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thies of Beatrice. He is majoring in civil engineering.

Allen V. Thummel, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Thummel of Kimball. He is majoring in mechanical engineering.

The Pointer Sisters appear in concert on the ETV Network on Aug. 14.

Menuhin, basketball, music and governors highlighted on ETV

A special tribute to a world-famous Nebraska author, highlights from a midwestern governors' conference, a Nebraska high school all star basketball game and popular music highlight this week's programming on the Nebraska ETV Network.

Now the Public Broadcasting Service is broadcasting the Menuhin tribute nationally over 250 PBS stations. Nebraska ETV viewers will have another chance to view "A Menuhin Tribute to Willa Cather," Monday, August 12, at 7 p.m. (6 p.m. Mountain Time), repeating Thursday, August 14, at 2 p.m.

Twenty-four high school basketball players in the state will compete in the Sixth Annual Nebraska State High School Basketball Game. The Nebraska ETV Network will broadcast complete game coverage Saturday, August 17, at 8:30 p.m.

The "1974 High School All Star Basketball Game" is sponsored by the Nebraska Coaches Association. The game will be taped by the Nebraska ETV Network Friday, August 16, at Pershing Auditorium in Lincoln.

Governors from 15 Midwest states met in Minneapolis July 29-31 for the Midwestern Governor's Conference, with Nebraska's Governor J. James Exon presiding as chairman. Highlights of the conference will be broadcast on a special hour-long program, "The Mid-western Governors' Conference," Sunday, August 11, at 10 p.m. on the Nebraska ETV Network.

Guest speakers at the annual conference included such persons as New York Times columnist Harrison Salisbury, Federal Energy Administrator John Sawhill, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz, National Farmers Organization president Oren Lee Staley and Minnesota's two U.S. Senators, Walter Mondale and Hubert Humphrey.

Exploding on the music scene with a combination of Andrew Sisters camp and vibrant rhythm, the Pointer Sisters will perform for ETV audiences. Bonnie, June, Anita and Ruth perform on the summer music series "The Boarding House," Wednesday, August 14, at 8:30 p.m. on the Nebraska ETV Network.

The Pointer Sisters are the daughters of an Oakland preacher and they sing together as they did when they were children in their father's church. They have replaced the hymns and gospel tunes with a wide variety of jazzed-up music.

It's a night of Gershwin hits with piano virtuoso Earl Wild, Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra on "Evening at Pops," Sunday, August 11, at 7 p.m. on the Nebraska ETV Network. The program repeats Thursday, August 15, at 7 p.m. and Friday, August 16, at 3 p.m.

Wild's rendition of "Concerto in F" will be featured that night. The Boston Pops Orchestra plays selections from "Girl Crazy"—"I Got Rhythm," "Embraceable You," "Bidin' My Time," "Strike Up the Band" and others.

Other programs of special interest to Nebraska ETV viewers include:—"Puppets and the Poet" revives the ancient art of puppetry in a one-hour special, Sunday,

August 11, at 4:30 p.m., repeating Thursday, August 15, at 9 p.m. The program uses producer Peter Zapletal's "Black Theatre" technique of puppet animation. Featured are excerpts from Shakespeare, including "Macbeth," "Taming of the Shrew" and "Richard III."

—"Masterpiece Theatre," Sunday, August 11, at 8 p.m., features master sleuth Lord Peter Wimsey in episode two of "Clouds of Witness." Wimsey and Detective Inspector Parker examine the scene of the crime and begin to probe the character of the dead man. The program repeats Monday, August 12, at 10:30 p.m. and Friday, August 16, at 9:30 p.m.

—"Jeanne Wolf with..." features talks with contemporary personalities by interviewer Jeanne Wolf in a one-to-one interview format series. Don Shula, Miami Dolphins coach, is Jeanne's special guest, Tuesday August 13, at 8 p.m.

—"Learning to Live" focuses on how individuals adopt life plans or scripts early in life in the program, "Acquiring Life Scripts," Wednesday, August 14, at 7 p.m.

—"The Great American Dream Machine" features columnist Amy Vanderbilt, singers Elaine Stritch and Carly Simon, and roller derby queen Ann Cavello in an hour of comedy, song and contemplation. Wednesday, August 14, at 7:30 p.m., repeating Thursday, August 15, at 10:30 p.m. and Saturday, August 17, at 7:30 p.m.

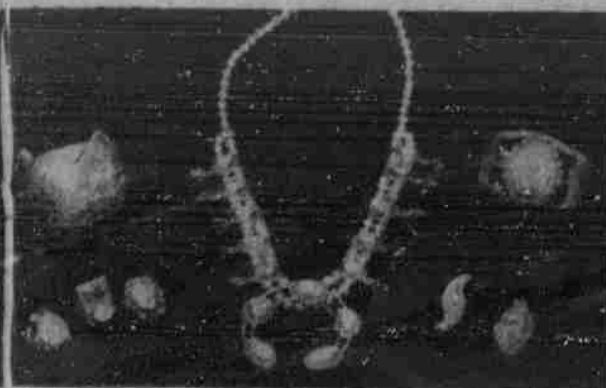

—"August: A Month of Folk and Country" headlines Rick Evans and Pam Herbert in "I Need This Song," recorded before a live studio audience for a broadcast Wednesday, August 14, at 9 p.m.

—"Just a Cop" is a film portrait of thirty-two year old Officer Richard Hyland, on the Madison, Wisconsin police force for six years. His day-by-day activities will be seen Friday, August 16, at 6:30 p.m. on the Nebraska ETV Network.

See our new

TURQUOISE DISPLAY

featuring authentic handmade Indian jewelry with the finest in Navajo, Zuni and Hopi wares.

PLUS our other imports:

- tapestries
- gifts
- beaded curtains
- bedspreads
- incense
- pewter items
- Navajo rugs
- pottery
- brass work

Lutfiyys's

Class Menagerie
477-3219

19th & "O" St.
477-4061

NEBRASKA REPERTORY THEATRE

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
Aug. 4	Aug. 5 Mary Sunshine	Aug. 6 School for Wives	Aug. 7 Cohan	Aug. 8 School for Wives	Aug. 9 Birthday Party	Aug. 10 Cohan

Curtain time 8:00 p.m.

SINGLE ADMISSION $2.50 ★ SEASON MEMBERSHIP $8.00

TELEPHONE 472-2073

12th & R STREETS