

Rep players act in grand new play

"Cohan is a Grand Old Name", an original play by David Bell, is playing in alternate repertory with three other plays, "Little Mary Sunshine", "School for Wives", and "Birthday Party."

In the top left picture are George as the older George Cohan (left) and David Landis as Georgie, the younger George

Cohan. In the picture right below that are Bill Wallis as Jerry, (top), Cindy Wallis as Nellie, David Landis as Georgie and Dee Amerio as Josie. In the picture next below is Jim Sudik as the vaudeville dancer. In the top right hand picture are (from left): Linda Rutherford, Doug Holsclaw, Jann Simpson, Kris Abart and Judy Zimmerman.

Photos by Lucy Lien

