

Price hike for parking permits

The same 7,000 UNL for maintenance work, purchased at the Campus Security's traffic division Monday had to dig farther into bank accounts to meet the $10 parking permit increase.

This year permits cost $25, Campus Police Chief Gail Gade said. Permits have been $15 for the last three years, he said.

Gade blamed the price hike on a deficit accumulated last year. Costs for Maintenance work, including striping parking stalls, paving lots, replacing posts and enlarging existing lots, were passed on to students purchasing permits, he said.

Another major cost is the shuttle bus service between City Campus and the fairgrounds parking lot and service between East and City Campuses. The shuttle service costs approximately $7,000 each year, he said.

According to Gade, the UNL campus has some of the cheapest parking in the Big 8. Other Big 8 schools sell parking permits for as much as $160 a year, he said.

At least 130% of a given parking lot's capacity is sold, Gade said. This 30% oversell is necessary to keep lots full since cars continuously come and go, he said.

Parking permits will be on sale at the Coliseum the remainder of this week. Beginning Tuesday, Sept. 3, permits may be purchased at the Campus Security office. Permits will be available all semester for $25.

"There seems to be little doubt, as many now realize, that what is going on in the USSR is not simply something happening in one country, but a foreboding of the future of man, and therefore deserving the fullest attention of Western observers.

"No, it is not any difficulties of perception that the West is suffering, but a desire not to know, an emotional preference for the pleasant over the unpleasant. Such an attitude is governed by the spirit of Munich...

"Co-existence on this tightly knit earth should be viewed as an existence not only without wars—that is not enough—but also without violence, or telling us how to live, what to say, what to think, what to know and what not to know..."

Join Young Americans for Freedom today

The Sharon Statement

"Adopted in Conference at Sharon, Connecticut, September 9-11, 1960."

IN THIS TIME of moral and political crisis, it is the responsibility of the youth of America to affirm certain eternal truths.

WE, as young conservatives, believe:

THAT foremost among the transcendent values is the individual's use of his God-given free will, whence derives his right to be free from the restrictions of arbitrary force;

THAT liberty is indivisible, and that political freedom cannot long exist without economic freedom;

THAT the purposes of government are to protect these freedoms through the preservation of internal order, the provision of national defense, and the administration of justice;

THAT when government ventures beyond these rightful functions, it accumulates power which tends to diminish order and liberty;

THAT the Constitution of the United States is the best arrangement yet devised for empowering government to fulfill its proper role, while restraining it from the concentration and abuse of power;

THAT the genius of the Constitution—the division of powers—is summed up in the clause which reserves primacy to the several states, or to the people, in those spheres not specifically delegated to the Federal Government;

THAT the market economy, allocating resources by the free play of supply and demand, is the single economic system compatible with the requirements of personal freedom and constitutional government, and that it is at the same time the most productive supplier of human needs;

THAT when government interferes with the work of the market economy, it tends to reduce the moral and physical strength of the nation; that when it takes from one man to bestow on another, it diminishes the incentive of the first, the integrity of the second, and the moral autonomy of both;

THAT we will be free only so long as the national sovereignty of the United States is secure; that history shows periods of freedom are rare, and can exist only when free citizens concertedly defend their rights against all enemies;

THAT the forces of international Communism are, at present, the greatest single threat to these liberties;

THAT the United States should stress victory over, rather than coexistence with, this menace; and

THAT American foreign policy must be judged by this criterion: does it serve the just interests of the United States?
