

Student government from 9 states to meet

An ASUN Senate ad hoc committee met Thursday night to discuss organization of an October student government conference. Students attending the conference will represent a nine state area, according to Dave Howlett, ASUN second vice president and chairman of the committee.

Howlett said the conference, to be held in the Nebraska Union, will bring together student leaders from Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Missouri, South Dakota, Western Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota.

For four days, Oct. 17-20, an anticipated crowd of 200 college students will discuss leadership and administrative skills, Howlett said.

The conference has been in the making since May when ASUN joined the National Institute of Student Governments, [NISG], through which Howlett said he discovered Student Leadership Services [SLS].

SLS, a non-profit organization from Milwaukee, Wisc., which aids in educating student organizational leaders, will help with the conference.

Art Alexander, ASUN senator and member of the conference committee, said he hopes the conference will help ASUN become more effective for UNL.

"This conference will help ASUN figure out what it's supposed to do, and how to do it," he said.

Committee members said the conference will expose ASUN representatives to other forms of student government, with so many schools represented. Members said they hope to get ideas for a more effective form of UNL government than ASUN's present structure.

Cost for the out of state students will be $65 a person according to Howlett. This includes housing and meals, plus cost of the conference itself. Men will be housed in Abel Hall with tentative plans for the women to stay in the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education on East Campus.

According to Howlett, the conference will begin at 7 p.m. Thursday, October 17. From then until Saturday noon, with the help of SLS, students will discuss administrative and leadership skills involved with student government.

Howlett said workshops will fill the time from Saturday noon to Sunday noon. The committee suggested workshop topics including: student influence within the community, student lobby, communications, student government power in the state, student fees, administration-student relations, and minority and women's concerns.

ANAIS NIN OBSERVED

A film Portrait of a woman as Artist
Directed by Robert Snyder

U.S.A. 1973 68 minutes

On screen, Miss Nin muses on her experiences as a writer, psychoanalysis with Otto Rank, dreams as blueprints for literature, her methods of editing the Journal and an experiment with LSD, (which made her feel that she was turning into gold).

"Appearing equally delicate and robust, Miss Nin is impressive as a survivor—also as a flexible, generous person who has spanned such a range of decades. She still makes me nervous when she talks about the vision of the artist."—Nora Sayre, The New York Times
