Health Education majors and members of Eta Sigma Gamma are asked to contact the new Health Education office in Fairfield Hall 3104. Contact has been lost with some majors due to reorganization and move to new quarters. A fall picnic, games and boating day is scheduled for Saturday. Please contact Mrs. Lewis at 472-3843 or in Fairchild Hall 3104, Selleck Quadrangle.

Interviews for positions on the Student Council on Health will be held Sept. 23, 24 and 25. Any student interested in this Health Center Advisory board may call 472-2102, Ext. 239.

High school seniors from western and central Nebraska will tour UNL Saturday at the first of the annual senior information days.

International Club will host an informal meeting at 7 p.m., Sept. 22, in the Wesley House Basement, 560 N. 16th. Membership is free and open to anyone.

The Lincoln Computing Facility will offer a one-week mini-course, "Plotting", beginning Monday. It will cover the use of Calcomp and Gould plotters from high level languages such as Fortran, Cobol, Pl/1, etc. The course will meet from 3:30-5 p.m. Sept. 23, 25 and 27 in Nebraska Hall 185. Contact Jeff Rehm or Jose Inguanzo, 472-3701, for additional information regarding the fall semester mini-courses.

Students and faculty interested in starting a Lincoln Sokol unit of gymnastics are invited to attend an organizational meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday in the home of Gov. J. J. Exon. For more information call Jan Tenopir, 477-3091.

The film Anais Nin—Observed, will be screened at Sheldon Art Gallery this Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. In the film, Nin speaks of her experience as a writer, her ideas on dreams, and an LSD adventure.

A second feature narrated by Eli Wallach will portray Russian writer Anton Chekhov.
