RACTIME 60 YEARS AGO

Oct. 2, 1914—"The Black Masques request that all girls who have tickets for the girls' section at the football game Saturday will meet in the Music Hall of the Temple from one-thirty to two-thirty, Saturday afternoon, to practice songs and yells. We will then go to the game in a body."

"The future work of the University, then, is to train men in the government of cities. Provision must be made in the curriculum for training men to govern cities as men now are fitted to teach high schools, practice law, and build bridges. In the selection of city managers the test will be efficiency, not vote-getting capacity. As in Germany, city government will become a profession. It is true that municipal administration now is a business in some cities. By trained men responsible to the people? No; rather tobacco-chewing, hand-shaking, professional politicians. Clean, efficient government will only come when trained, non-political, far-seeing men are placed at the helm."
