Response to ASK low; businesses want out

The 30 original business members of the Associated Student Koop (ASK) have dropped to 26 and at least three of those want out, the Daily Nebraskan has learned.

According to their managers, Treck Photography, Dual System Driving and JB's Big Boy all wish to cancel their agreement with ASK. The managers said they have not seen or heard from any ASK representative since joining the program in 1973.

J B's Big Boy manager John Obert said he'd like to get out of the ASK agreement but he doesn't know who to contact. J B's Big Boy has had a total of six students use the cards in the last two years, he said.

ASK has been without a business manager for about a year. Sharon Johnson, ASUN first vice president, said a new ASK manager is to be appointed soon.

"We are looking for a business administration student to fill the position," she said. Until that time, Johnson is fulfilling the duties, she said.

Renewed effort

ASK has renewed its effort to sell ASK to students with more sales personnel contacting potential student buyers, Johnson said. As soon as a business manager is found, businesses will be solicited for membership, she said.

Dual System Driving has had only two inquiries about ASK in two years. Pat Casey, the manager, says she doesn't even remember signing the agreement with ASK and didn't realize she was a member.

Treck Photography plans to drop their membership because "it is no longer functional," manager Keith Anterburn said.

Dropped memberships

Among businesses who have dropped ASK membership are Taco John's, Odessey, Stage Door Saloon and Paul's Liquor. Of these Odessey and Stage Door Saloon have gone out of business. Paul's Liquor has changed owners. Taco John's withdrew from the koop in October.

Firms contacted by the Daily Nebraskan said they were under the impression the agreement with ASK was for a one year period, 1973-74.

Gary Barth, manager of The Fish Store said he the ASK agreement was "a one shot deal" (for a one-year period). Since August 1973 only two students have used their ASK cards there, he said.

Few students using cards

Most participating businesses assumed that more students would be using the cards, the managers said.

Bill Mills, manager of the Arena and Holiday Skating Center said no one has used the cards there.

Paint Bar manager Don Huff said two students have used the cards there in two years. "We expected a lot more to use them," he said.

According to manager Bill Page, Steak 'O Rama has had two students use the cards. Page said "it's a real hassle (being an ASK member) and a lot of paper work."

Of the firms contacted by the Daily Nebraskan, J B's Big Boy had experienced the most card patronage with six students using the cards since signing their agreement in 1973, according to Obert.
